a lake that it behooves every tourist to visit The shore of the lake presents an unbroken array of establishments of this order of every category from the grand hotel of the newest fashion with a chalk white front a hundred balconies and a dozen flags flying from its roof to the little Swiss pension of an elder day with its name inscribed in German looking lettering upon a pink or yellow wall and an awkward summerhouse in the angle of the garden One of the hotels at Vevey however is famous even classical being distinguished from many of its upstart neighbors by an air both of luxury and of maturity
