,2012-01-01 This collection focuses on texts that address the other arts from painting to photography from the stage to the screen and from avant garde experiments to mass culture Despite their diversity of object and approach the essays in Relational Designs coalesce around the argument that representations are defined by relations and dynamics rather than intrinsic features This rationale is supported by the discourses and methodologies favoured by the book s contributors their approaches offer a cross section of the intellectual and critical environment of our time The book illustrates the critical possibilities that derive from the broad range of modes of inquiry poststructuralist criticism gender studies postcolonial studies new historicism that the book s four sections bring to bear on a wealth of intermedial practices But Relational Designs compounds such critical emphases with the voice of the practitioner the book is rounded off by an interview in which a contemporary novelist discusses her attraction to the other arts in terms that extend the book s insights and bridge the gap between academic discourse and artistic practice The Art of Daniel Clowes

This Is Not a Copy Kaja Marczevska,2018-02-22 In This Is Not a Copy Kaja Marczevska identifies a characteristic copy paste tendency in contemporary culture a shift in attitude that allows reproduction and plagiarizing to become a norm in cultural production This inclination can be observed in literature and non literary forms of writing at an unprecedented level as experiments with text redefine the nature of creativity Responding to these transformations Marczevska argues that we must radically rethink our conceptions of artistic practice and proposes a move away from the familiar categories of copying and originality creativity and plagiarism in favour of the notion of iteration Developing the new concept of the Iterative Turn This Is Not a Copy identifies and theorizes the turn toward ubiquitous iteration as a condition of text based creative practices as they emerge in response to contemporary technologies Conceiving of writing as iterative invites us to address a set of new critical questions about contemporary culture Combining discussion of literature experimental and electronic writing mainstream
