Maru Bessie Head The Main Character Analysis:

Bessie Head and the Trauma of Exile Joshua Agbo, 2021-06-17 This book investigates themes of exile and oppression in Southern Africa across Bessie Head's novels and short fiction. An exile herself arriving in Botswana as a South African refugee, Bessie Head's fiction serves as an important example of African exile literature. This book argues that Head's characters are driven to exile as a result of their socio-political ambivalence while still in South Africa and that this sense of discomfort follows them to their new lives. Investigating themes of trauma and identity politics across colonial and post-colonial contexts, this book also addresses the important theme of black on black prejudice and hostility which is often overlooked in studies of Head's work. Covering Head's shorter fiction as well as her major novels When Rain Clouds Gather (1969), Maru (1971), A Question of Power (1973), Serowe (1981), Village of the Rain Wind (1981), and A Bewitched Crossroads (1984), this book will be of interest to researchers of African literature and postcolonial history.

Bessie Head Huma Ibrahim, 1996 One of the foremost African writers of our time who dispelled the silence between colonial and feminist discourses by talking back, Bessie Head at last gets her due in this first book-length comprehensive study of her work. This book locates Head's unquestionable importance in the canon of African literature. Author Huma Ibrahim argues that unless we are able to look at the merging of women's sexual and linguistic identity with their political and gendered identity, the careful configurations created in Head's work will elude us. Ibrahim offers a series of thoughtful readings informed by feminist diasporan, postcolonial, and poststructuralist insights and concerns. She identifies a theme she calls exilic consciousness, the desire to belong, and traces its manifestations through each phase of Head's work, showing how women's talk, a marginalized commodity in the construction of southern Africa, is differently embodied and evaluated. Bessie Head's works are frequently featured in courses in African literature, third world literature, and fiction writing, but there is little critical material on them. Ibrahim offers readings of Head's novels When Rain Clouds Gather, Maru, and A Question of Power, as well as the collections Tales of Tenderness and Power: A Collector of Treasures, A Woman Alone, Autobiographical Writings, and The Cardinals, the histories Serowe, Village of the Rain Wind, and A Bewitched Crossroad, and her letters to Robert Vigne collected in A Gesture of Belonging. In Head's exploration of oppressed people, especially women and those in exile, Ibrahim finds startling insights into institutional power relations. Head not only subverts Western hegemonic notions of the third world woman but offers a critique of postcoloniality.

Bushmen in the Tourist Imaginary Roie Thomas, 2016-12-14 This book is a semantic and semiotic analysis of tourism texts that represent specific groups of San or Bushmen in modern Botswana and is framed by postcolonial theory, post-tourism, and resistance theories. Critically, the book demonstrates the power that both written and visual language can have upon consumers of texts. It provides a case study of neo-colonial exploitation and conversely reveals the efficacy of self-representation for tourist consumption, with an increasing number of San offering alternatives to an entrenched ethnic hegemony, effecting gradual political and social recognition and autonomy. As such, the book is written in a spirit of optimism for the burgeoning self determination of a long marginalised group The Tragic Life Cecil Anthony Abrahams,1990 Women Who Kill David Roche,Cristelle Maury,2020-02-20 Women Who Kill explores several lines of inquiry the female murderer as a figure that destabilizes order the tension between criminal and victim the relationship between crime and expression or the lack thereof and the paradox whereby a crime can be both an act of destruction and a creative assertion of agency In doing so the contributors assess the influence of feminist queer and gender studies on mainstream television and cinema notably in the genres film noir horror melodrama that have received the most critical attention from this perspective They also analyse the politics of representation by considering these works of fiction in their contexts and addressing some of the ambiguities raised by postfeminism The book is structured in three parts Neo femmes Fatales Action Babes and Monstrous Women Films and series examined include White Men Are Cracking Up 1994 Hit Gone Girl 2014 Terminator 1984 The Walking Dead 2010 Mad Max Fury Road 2015 Contagion 2011 and Ex Machina 2015 among others Of War and Women, Oppression and Optimism Eustace Palmer,2008 Palmer then on African women novelists A detailed and absorbing examination of African feminist theory leads to a discussion of novels by Bessie Head Buchi Emecheta Mariama Ba Nawal El Saadawi and Tsitsi Dangerembga showing the differing ways in which these novelists explore the condition of the African woman and considering the established as well as new narrative conventions they use to give voice to their concerns Palmer is particularly impressive in the section where he deals with those novelists established as well as recent who deal with social comment a perennial concern of the African novel and one that is even manifest today His analyses of Achebe s Anthills of the Savannah Okri s The Famished Road Cheney Coker s The Last Harmattan of Alusine Dunbar and Benjamin Kwakye s The Sun By Night are particularly illuminating as he shows how these novelists bend the novel form or use new techniques to articulate their own perceptions of recent history African Women Narrating Identity Rose A. Sackeyfio,2023-08-08 This book examines the complexities of women s lives in Africa and the transnational spaces of Europe and North America through the literary works of key African women writers Using a postcolonial analytical framework the book highlights the commonalities of African women s identities and experiences across national ethnic linguistic and religious boundaries in Africa and in western settings It collates the multi regional narratives of key African women writers who convey how women s lives are shaped by social economic and political factors at home and abroad It also illustrates the intersection of ethnicity class and gender that flows through all the texts examined Unlike existing works that explore African women s fiction this book uncovers the transformation from postcolonial themes of nationhood to global modalities of post independence writing through the lens of gender The book engages with feminist expression through broad themes including religion war and ethnic conflict women s status in society tradition and modernity and local and global tensions A unique approach to literary criticism of Anglophone African women s writing this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of African Literature African Studies Women s Literature Postcolonial Literature Cultural
