Meccan Trade And The Rise Of Islam:

Meccan Trade and the Rise of Islam Patricia Crone, 2004 Patricia Crone reassesses one of the most widely accepted dogmas in contemporary accounts of the beginnings of Islam the supposition that Mecca was a trading center In addition she seeks to elucidate sources on which we should reconstruct our picture of the birth of the new religion in Arabia Meccan Trade Prior to the Rise of Islam Salamah Salih Sylayman Aladieh, 1991 The Formation of Islam Jonathan P. Berkey, 2003 Jonathan Berkey's 2003 book surveys the religious history of the peoples of the Near East from roughly 600 to 1800 CE The opening chapter examines the religious scene in the Near East in late antiquity and the religious traditions which preceded Islam Subsequent chapters investigate Islam's first century and the beginnings of its own traditions the classical period from the accession of the Abbasids to the rise of the Buyid amirs and thereafter the emergence of new forms of Islam in the middle period Throughout close attention is paid to the experiences of Jews and Christians as well as Muslims The book stresses that Islam did not appear all at once but emerged slowly as part of a prolonged process whereby it was differentiated from other religious traditions and indeed that much that we take as characteristic of Islam is in fact the product of the medieval period Meccan Trade and Islam Róbert Simon, 1989 The Theory of Contracts in Islamic Law Rayner, 1991 This book is the first comprehensive examination of the new codes of the major states of the Gulf region It examines the historical roots and systemization of the theory of contracts according to the classical law of Islam and charts the dichotomy between the legal theory and practice The influence of the divine sources of the law eclectic sources and legal methodologies on the system of contracts is assessed as is the way in which more rigid established laws have either resisted or been accommodated to adjust to social changes By examining modern legislation in Bahrain Kuwait and the United Arab Emirates this work emphasizes the continuing importance of Islamic contractual precepts within modern codifications of the Arab Gulf States and will be of equal enduring value to commercial and legal practitioners as well as scholars and students of Middle East Law Religions and Trade, 2013-11-28 In Religions and Trade a number of international scholars investigate the ways in which eastern and western religions were formed and transformed from the perspective of trade Trade changes religions Religions expand through the help of trade infrastructures and religions extend and enrich the trade relations with cultural and religious commodities which they contribute to the market place of human culture and religion This leads to the inclusion demarcation and densification as well as the amalgamation of religious traditions In an attempt to find new pathways into the world of religious dynamics this collection of essays focuses on four elements or commodities of religious interchange topologies of religious space religious symbol systems religious knowledge and religious ethical ways of life Contributors include Christoph Auffarth Izak Cornelius Georgios Halkias Geoffrey Herman Livia Kohn Al Makin Jason Neelis Volker Rabens Abhishek Singh Amar Loren Stuckenbruck Joan Goodnick Westenholz Peter Wick Michael Willis and Sylvia Winkelmann The Arabs and Arabia on the Eve of Islam F.E. Peters, 2017-09-29 This volume examines the background to the rise of Islam The opening essays consider the broad context of nomad sedentary relations in the Near East thereafter the focus is on the Arabian peninsula and the history of the Arab peoples The following papers set out the political and economic structures of the pre Islamic period and are concerned to trace the evolution of religious beliefs in the area looking in particular at the role of local traditions and the impact of Jewish and Christian influences Global Trade in the Early Medieval World Toslima Khatun,2025-02-18 Exploring the movement of peoples perfumes and spices across vast distances in this period of medieval history across Asia the Middle East and Europe this book examines the role of Arab merchants in trade between and among the Caliphate and Carolingian elites The study of the trade in perfumes and spices highlights the relationship between the South Asian subcontinent and the Caliphate It is shown that the societies involved in this intercontinental maritime trade intermingled through the demand for goods and products which allowed for the transmission of ideas and learning Crucially the Eurasian end of these trading routes were tapping into pre existing networks of trade as there is evidence that there were links of trade between East Asia and the near and Middle East as early as the seventh century B H first century A D Thus the book challenges the Eurocentric worldview which fails to take into account that the Europeans in the late medieval period came into a pre existing trading network This book will be of interest to readers in economic history as well as the history of trade globalisation South Asia the Middle East and the Medieval world

40 Questions About Islam Matthew Bennett,2020-03-31 A much anticipated new addition to the very popular and practical book series that answers real questions on key topics in contemporary Christianity Islam is one of the most significant forces shaping the world today but most Christians are confused about its key beliefs and practices Many wonder about the apparent similarities and obvious differences between Christianity and Islam and want to reach out to Muslim friends or neighbors with the gospel but don t know where to begin Having spent several years living in North Africa and the Middle East missions professor Matthew Bennett guides readers through Islam s key tenants and provides answers to critical questions such as Who was Muhammad and what was his message Do Muslims and Christians worship the same God What are the differences between the Qur an and the Bible What is shariah law What is the Islamic view of salvation What happens in the mosque Is Islam inherently misogynistic Do Muslims and Christians worship the same God How should a Christian share the gospel with Muslims Helpful summaries at the end of each chapter encapsulate important information followed by discussion questions useful for personal or small group study Whether you want to understand Islam better or reach Muslims for Christ 40 Questions on Islam is an indispensable primer and reference book Did Muhammad Exist? Robert Spencer,2021-07-13 Is there any sound historical evidence that the prophet of Islam actually existed or is the entire story of Muhammad fable or fiction It is a question that few have thought or dared to ask Virtually everyone Muslim and non Muslim alike takes for granted that the prophet of Islam lived as a prophet as well as a political and military leader in seventh century Arabia But this widely accepted story begins to crumble on close examination In his blockbuster New York Times
