

PREAMBLE1.1 INTRODUCTION

This syllabus is designed to cover progressively the study of geography from form 1 to 4.

It motivates learners to appreciate their local, national, regional and global geographical space. This will raise awareness of resource distribution, management and utilisation for the benefit of Zimbabwean citizens. The syllabus seeks to equip learners with skills, attitudes, values and practical competencies that enable them to participate in the development of the country. It enables response to challenges by developing solutions and skills leading to sustainable development. The syllabus recognises individual special education needs.

1.2 RATIONALE

Geography in the secondary school curriculum will equip learners with skills to understand location, patterns and processes of phenomena. It is designed to make learners appreciate diversity, valuation, utilisation and conservation of resources. The learning area gives an opportunity to learners to manipulate geographical data and make informed decisions in their day to day experiences. The geography syllabus enables learners to develop the following skills:

- Problem solving
- Critical thinking
- Decision making

- gender
- technology
