Open City Teju Cole:

Open City Teju Cole, 2011-08-04 The past if there is such a thing is mostly empty space great expanses of nothing in which significant persons and events float Nigeria was like that for me mostly forgotten except for those few things that I remembered with outsize intensity Along the streets of Manhattan a young Nigerian doctor doing his residency wanders aimlessly The walks meet a need for Julius they are a release from the tightly regulated mental environment of work and they give him the opportunity to process his relationships his recent breakup with his girlfriend his present his past Though he is navigating the busy parts of town the impression of countless faces does nothing to assuage his feelings of isolation But it is not only a physical landscape he covers Julius crisscrosses social territory as well encountering people from different cultures and classes who will provide insight on his journey which takes him to Brussels to the Nigeria of his youth and into the most unrecognizable facets of his own soul A haunting novel about national identity race liberty loss dislocation and surrender Teju Cole's Open City seethes with intelligence Written in a clear rhythmic voice that lingers this book is a mature profound work by an important new author who has much to say about our world A Study Guide for Teju Cole's "Open City"., 2019 A Study Guide for Teju Cole's "Open City" Gale, Cengage, 2019-05-17 A Study Guide for Teju Cole's Open City excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Novels for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs Mapping Generations of Traumatic Memory in American Narratives Dana Mihăilescu, Roxana Oltean, Mihaela Precup, 2014-06-12 This volume collects work by several European North American and Australian academics who are interested in examining the performance and transmission of post traumatic memory in the contemporary United States The contributors depart from the interpretation of trauma as a unique exceptional event that shatters all systems of representation as seen in the writing of early trauma theorists like Cathy Caruth Shoshana Felman and Dominick LaCapra Rather the chapters in this collection are in conversation with more recent readings of trauma such as Michael Rothberg's Multidirectional Memory 2009 the role of mediation and remediation in the dynamics of cultural memory Astrid Erll 2012 Aleida Assman 2011 and Stef Craps focus on postcolonial witnessing and its cross cultural dimension 2013 The corpus of post traumatic narratives under discussion includes fiction diaries memoirs films visual narratives and oral testimonies A complicated dialogue between various and sometimes conflicting narratives is thus generated and examined along four main lines in this volume trauma in the context of multidirectional memory the representation of trauma in autobiographical texts the dynamic of public forms of national commemoration and the problematic instantiation of 9/11 as a traumatic landmark Fictions of the War on Terror D. O'Gorman, 2015-06-29 This book argues that there are a number of contemporary novels that challenge the reductive us and them binaries that have been prevalent not only in politics and the global media since 9/11 but also in many works within the emerging genre of 9/11 fiction itself Transit Lit Cameron Leader-Picone,2025-12-15 Explores new forms of cosmopolitan identity constructed in contemporary diasporic fictions The expanding number of migrants to the United States from continental Africa since the 1960s has led to a flourishing twenty first century literary corpus by immigrants and the children of immigrants Transit Lit Fictions of Migration in Twenty First Century African Immigrant Literature analyzes key works by African immigrant authors such as Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Teju Cole and Yaa Gyasi to argue that such texts reveal the tensions between the authors own cosmopolitan ideals and a necessary critique of how such ideals become co opted and commodified within contemporary geopolitics Cameron Leader Picone offers a new conceptual framework for reading contemporary diasporic texts that do not fit easily into national or continental traditions or previous literary models Instead he argues for the need to embrace the overlapping instabilities of meaning identity and citizenship that characterize twenty first century diasporic movement in an interconnected world These texts and the constructions of identity that they trace map the terrain of contemporary migration

Writing Spatiality in West Africa Madhu Krishnan,2018 From the imaginative geographies of conquest identified by Edward Said to the very real and material institution of territorial borders regions and geographical amalgamations the control administration and integration of space are known to have played a central and essential role in the creation of contemporary Africa Space continues to be a site of conflict from separatist struggles to the distribution of resources to the continued absorption of African territories into the uneven geographies of global capitalism In this book Madhu Krishnan examines the ways in which the anxieties and conflicts engendered by these phenomena are registered in a broad set of literary texts from British and French West Africa By placing these novels in dialogue with a range of archival material such as territorial planning documents legislative papers records of liberation movements and development projects this book reveals the submerged articulations between spatial planning and literary expression generating new readings of canonical West African texts as well as analyses of otherwise under researched material Publisher s description Every Day Is for the Thief Teju Cole,2014-03-25 NAMED ONE OF THE TEN BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY DWIGHT GARNER THE NEW YORK TIMES NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY San Francisco Chronicle NPR The Root The Telegraph The Globe and Mail NATIONAL BESTSELLER FINALIST PHILLIS WHEATLEY BOOK AWARD TEJU COLE WAS NAMED ONE OF THE MOST INFLUENTIAL AFRICANS OF THE YEAR BY NEW AFRICAN MAGAZINE For readers of Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and Michael Ondaatje Every Day Is for the Thief is a wholly original work of fiction by Teju Cole whose critically acclaimed debut Open City was the winner of the PEN Hemingway Award and a finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award and was named one of the best books of the year by more than twenty publications Fifteen years is a long time to be away from home It feels longer still because I left under a cloud A young Nigerian living in New York City goes home to Lagos for a short visit finding a city both familiar and strange In a city dense with story the unnamed narrator moves through a mosaic of life hoping to find inspiration for his own He witnesses the yahoo yahoo diligently perpetrating email frauds from
