Inverting the Pyramid Jonathan Wilson,2008 Whether it's Terry Venables keeping his wife up late at night with diagrams on scraps of paper spread over the eiderdown or the classic TV sitcom of moving the salt Jose Mourinho meanwhile is often brought to task for trying to smuggle the long ball game back into English football his defence being his need to break the lines of banks of defenders and midfielders Jonathan Wilson is an erudite and detailed writer but never loses a sense of the grand narrative sweep and here he pulls apart the modern game traces the world history of tactics back from modern pioneers such as Rinus Michels and Valeriy Lobanovskyi the Swiss origins of Catenaccio and Herbert Chapman right back to beginning where chaos reigned Along the way he looks at the lives of great players and thinkers who shaped the game and probes why the English in particular have proved themselves unwilling to grapple with the abstract This is a modern classic of football writing to rank with David Winner's Brilliant Orange and Simon Kuper's Football Against the Enemy The Architecture of the Playing Field Richard L. Cleary,2025-05-06 A novel exploration of playing fields as aesthetic and architectural spaces that frame athletes creativity and spectators evolving experiences of sport The playing field is more than an arena for sporting rivalry It is a laboratory of invention where athletes and coaches create new uses for the human body in response to the constraints and affordances of space Indeed Richard Cleary argues that from translucent squash courts to the NBA three point line to the city streets used by skateboarders all sports have embedded spatial relationships that are also charged with social significance The Architecture of the Playing Field explores the aesthetic and physical experiences of the grounds on which we compete Cleary digs into the perspectives of spectators athletes coaches and umpires perspectives that have changed along with the shifting configuration and mediation of the field from early live sports coverage to today s TV broadcasts overlaid with high tech graphics and observed from every angle Cleary shows how rules governing the size shape and divisions of the field reflect sports entwinement with societies at large in particular the politics of race and gender Mindful as well that some sports resist containment he analyzes the disruptive use of space by snowboarders and parkour athletes The Architecture of the Playing Field sensitizes us to the interplay of settings and bodies in motion fundamental to the power of sport
