

Poetry Analysis Practice

Learning Targets: I can determine each poem's meaning.

I can determine how poetic techniques create or enhance each poem's meaning or subject matter.

Directions: Read each of the poems in this packet several times. Annotate each poem as you read. Note words or phrases that suggest the poem's theme, note and explain poetic techniques used. Use your "Poetry Terms" notebook for ideas. Note any connections or reactions you have to each poem. Then, answer the questions that follow each poem (either on the piece or on a separate sheet).

Letter Burns for the Perfection of Paper —Martin Espada

As children, I watched other high school boys at a printing press that manufactured legal pads:
the paper
stacked seven feet high and leaning on a rickety scaffold between the pages,
then brushed and glue up and down the stack, knights! knights required for the perfection of paper, connecting the water message sluggish by a lead, the heads would slide along, suddenly sharp-pointed, and gather like stones from the crevices of the skin, hidden then the glue would sting, frankly saying
all sorts of things at the junction.

Now years later, as law school, I know that every legal pad was glued with the sting of hidden cuts, that every open notebook was a part of the upturned and burning
