

DATA PROTECTION AND PRIVACY REGULATIONS

Websites and mobile apps are common sources of violations

Your customers' digital experience is powered by a range of third-party services not controlled by enterprise IT—ad blocker, advertising, analytics, content recommendation, data management, payments, social widgets, video players, etc. These third-party services can collect consumer data without your knowledge or authorization. With governments and regulators adopting stronger positions regarding consumer data protection rights, how do you manage these digital vendors? How do your digital assets comply with regulations?
