Banschbach, 2019-01-04 This book explores interdisciplinary approaches to animal focused curriculum and pedagogy in environmental education with an emphasis on integrating methods from the arts humanities and natural and social sciences Each chapter whether addressing curriculum pedagogy or both engages with the extant literature in environmental education and other relevant fields to consider how interdisciplinary curricular and pedagogical practices shed new light on our understandings of and ethical moral obligations to animals Embracing theories like intersectionality posthumanism Indigenous cosmologies and significant life experiences and considering topics such as equine training meat consumption and production urban human animal relationships and zoos and aquariums the chapters collectively contribute to the field by foregrounding the lives of animals The volume purposefully steps forward from the historical marginalization of animals in educational research and practice Ebook: Understanding Human Sexuality Hyde; DeLamater, 2016-04-16 Ebook Understanding Human Sexuality The Secret Life of Sleep Kat Duff, 2014-03-18 Unlock the astonishing facts myths and benefits of one of the most endangered human resources sleep It has become increasingly clear that our sleep shapes who we are as much as if not more than we shape it While most sleep research hasn't ventured far beyond research labs and treatment clinics The Secret Life of Sleep taps into the enormous reservoir of human experiences to illuminate the complexities of a world where sleep has become a dwindling resource With a sense of infectious curiosity award winning author Kat Duff mixes cutting edge research with insightful narratives surprising insights and timely questions to help us better understand what we're losing before it's too late The Secret Life of Sleep tackles the full breadth of what sleep means to people the world over Embark on an exploration of what lies behind and beyond our eyelids when we surrender to the secret life of sleep Parasitic Personhood and the Ontology of Eating Lisa Heldke, 2025-08-28 Humans must eat and our eating involves us in a cascade of eating relationships that leave life and death biting into each other These realities should but often do not profoundly shape our understanding of personhood This book explores parasitic personhood an alternative to atomistic individualism that acknowledges the biological individual as a network of persistent biological relationships a holobiont and draws insight from the astonishing frequency and variety of parasitic feeding relationships What happens to our conception of personhood if we consider parasitism as more than just a threat to our health Parasitism is a remarkably common form of life however we tend to think of parasites only as dangerous pestilential organisms that should be eliminated What if parasitism in particular persistent eating relationships that threaten to destabilize host organisms were instead the model in terms of which we understood what it means to be a person What if we acknowledged the ineliminability indeed the centrality of parasitism to life and embraced both the persistent eating and the precarity that they entail as central to our understanding of personhood In advocating for parasitic personhood this book joins a history of efforts to uproot atomistic individualism the remarkably durable understanding of personhood that is aptly portrayed by its most well known eighteenth century model the billiard ball smoothly self contained with relationships decidedly external to it The parasitic alternative conceives persons as collections of organisms in relationships that are by turns and all at once essential precarious definitive destabilizing stable and shifting The book asks in what does parasitic personhood consist It goes on to examine some implications of this conception of personhood how is moral agency constituted for the parasitic person and how does parasitic personhood expand our understanding of aesthetic engagement and appreciation This book will absorb anyone who is interested in thinking about the metaphysical significance of their need to eat and their reliance on myriad other organisms to enable them to do so It will engage students and scholars of food and eating particularly those working on the metaphysics of food food and personhood fermentation and the microbiome as well as philosophers considering the ontological significance of food and eating

Cuomo, 2013-10-01 A provocative and surprising investigation into the ways that profit personalities and politics obstruct real progress in the war on cancer and one doctor's passionate call to action for change This year nearly 1.6 million new cases of cancer will be diagnosed and more than 1,500 people will die per day We've been asked to accept the disappointing strategy to manage cancer as a chronic disease We've allowed pharmaceutical companies to position cancer drugs that extend life by just weeks and may cost 100,000 for a single course of treatment as breakthroughs Why have we been able to cure and prevent other killer diseases but not most cancers Where is the bold government leadership that will transform our system from treatment to prevention Have we forgotten the mission of the National Cancer Act of 1971 to conquer cancer Through an analysis of over 40 years of medical evidence and interviews with cancer doctors researchers drug company executives and health policy advisors Dr Cuomo reveals frank and intriguing answers to these questions She shows us how all cancer stakeholders the pharmaceutical industry government physicians and concerned Americans can change the way we view and fight cancer in this country
