Sustainability and Social Responsibility of the Media and in the Media Milan Todorovic, Samuel O. Idowu, Silvia Puiu, 2026-01-01 This book addresses several relevant questions that keep coming up as the media sector develops and changes Although the field of media is multifaceted it is still dominated by very large commercial interests The multitude of platforms devices formats and technologies spread across different market segments are often controlled within the same value and supply chain are diagonally integrated and are tightly regulated by a set of changing and evolving community rules Therefore this book discusses a wide range of issues related to notions of media in various corporate independent and operational contexts of ethics ownership authorship originality trustworthiness economic social and even environmental sustainability In this context the book considers the notion of sustainability and social responsibility in media contexts from a variety of new unbiased and diverse perspectives making it valuable for researchers and practitioners

Students: inequalities and inclusion Patrizia Falzetti, 2026-02-04

Geography's Media Turn Chris Lukinbeal, Stanley D. Brunn, 2026-01-29 This edited volume examines how the arts and sciences have had to adapt engage confront and even alter research teaching and community service because of modern media The book describes how academics work with and through the media in their daily and professional lives The acceleration of changes to media in the digital age has been astounding whether due to social media web 2 0 new sensor technologies fake news or the rise of a post truth news media economy Many academics became media producers during COVID 19 having to engage in emergency remote teaching Further as academics we can no longer publish our results and expect a metered response from all entities but rather must promote and defend our work in the media and the classroom There is almost no part of academic work let alone human life that is not affected by media Many academics across the sciences and humanities now embrace the media as part of their daily practice and actively engage in media production through building podcasts and convergent media sites managing online courses and degree programs or being administrators or educators who interact with the media regularly at local national or international scales The chapters are original and written by a group of interdisciplinary junior and senior scholars from various world regions
