MUSEUM & RESEARCH CENTER

OUR MISSION

Living Sharks Museum is committed to educate the public about the value of the shark through research, display of shark biology, reproduction and conservation. We are leading the community-wide effort to protect the shark through education and conservation. We have a long history and are committed to work for a better future.

Living Sharks Museum is an affiliate of Living Sharks Project, a nonprofit organization that is leading an international effort to protect the shark through the power of education and conservation. We are committed to work for a better future.
