Sindh Text Board Jamshoro:

CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN Amna Afreen, 2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system. The book examines the questions: Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan? And how has their rule worsened the country's problems? The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society. The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis, interviews, and textbook analysis. This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program. I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions: How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing? I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed. Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky-high inflation. The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class. Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions. Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam? Why don't they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan? Instead, many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools. More importantly, why do the ulama, which literally means those who possess knowledge, particularly of Islam, maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions? Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder and discrimination against Pakistani minorities? Book Review: Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions, intolerance, and conflicts. Dr. Amna Afreen documents the political, socio-economic, and religious causes: limited government funding, widespread poverty and illiteracy, and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools. madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms. John L. Esposito, University Professor and Founding Director of The Alwaleed Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding, Georgetown University. Peacebuilding in Pakistan Heike Ruhland, 2019. When Pakistan was carved out of India in 1947 as a homeland for the Muslims of the subcontinent, it was envisioned as a secular state where non-Muslims would be granted freedom of religion and equal citizenship. However, the subsequent historical events led to a fast Islamization of nearly every part of public life and discrimination against the country's religious minorities who today make up less than 4 per cent of the overall population. Based on extensive field work involving more than 100 non-structured qualitative interviews, this study explores the situation of the religious minorities and the dynamics of interfaith peacebuilding in the Islamic Republic of

Pakistan Primary focus was laid on the practice of interfaith dialogue which given the draconic blasphemy laws differs from interfaith dialogue as conceived of in the West Additionally other peacebuilding measures as offered by various non governmental organizations were taken into account be they advocacy promotion of human rights and unbiased education or policy negotiation with the government Heike Ruhland holds two master s degrees one in Islamic Studies University of Zurich and one in International Information Management University of Hildesheim She attained her PhD from the Academy of World Religions University of Hamburg

Radicalization in Pakistan Muhammad Shoaib Pervez,2020-11-29

This book offers a critical analysis of radicalization in Pakistan by deconstructing the global and the official state narratives designed to restrain Pakistani radicalization Chapters are centered around three distinct themes educational norms religious practices and geo political aspects of radicalization to examine the prevalent state and global practices which propagate Pakistani radicalization discourse The book argues that there is both a global agenda which presents Pakistan as the epicenter and sponsor of terrorism and a domestic or official agenda that portrays Pakistan as the state which sacrificed and suffered the most in the recent War on Terror which allow the country to gain sympathy as a victim Delineating both conflicting agendas through a critical analysis of global and state practices in order to understand the myths and narratives of radicalization in Pakistan constructed by powerful elites the book enables readers to gain a better understanding of this phenomenon A multidisciplinary critical approach to comprehending radicalization in Pakistan with innovative prescriptions for counter radicalization policy this book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of International Relations Security Studies Asian Politics as well as Religious Studies and Education in particular in the context of South Asia
