Dear Mr. Samuels,

Subject: Business proposal request letter

I am writing this letter to request a business proposal from your company 'Leads London'. Your company has always been a pioneer in providing fresh and innovative business ideas with thousands of creative entrepreneurs in your team.

Although we are catering a number of services to our customers but we are still looking for business expansion. We are thereby requesting you to send a business proposal to us which can help in our business expansion. We are currently providing web designing and development services to our customers and a similar business plan is most welcomed from your end.

We expect you to cover almost every area of concern in your proposal and highlight the ways in which the proposal will be beneficial for our existing business. We also expect you to cover the minimum expenditure and the expected revenue from the new proposal. After review of the proposal by our managing heads, we will decide upon the implementation of the proposal.

We are looking forward to receiving a business proposal from you soon.

Sincerely,

Sarah Parker
