Tourist Visa Checklist Vfs Global:

Points of Entry Vic Satzewich,2015-09-01 Every year over 1.3 million people apply to visit work or settle in Canada. It falls to visa officers to determine who gets in and who stays out. In the face of this enormous responsibility, how do these gatekeepers use their discretionary authority to assess eligibility, credibility, and risk? Seeking answers to this question, Vic Satzewich conducted interviews with 128 visa officers, locally engaged staff, and immigration program managers at eleven overseas offices. He reveals how the organizational context within which they work shapes their decision making. When something in an application does not add up—somber photographs from a supposed wedding celebration, for example—an officer conducts follow-up interviews with the applicant. In a world where no two visa applications are the same and in the context of complex and shifting population movements and pressures, this is a fascinating look at how visa officers do their work.

Migration Mary Gilmartin, Malene H. Jacobsen, Anna-Kaisa Kuusisto,2026-02-24 A CRITICAL, NUANCED, AND INTERDISCIPLINARY INTRODUCTION TO THE GEOGRAPHIES OF MIGRATION. Migration: A Critical Introduction offers a fresh and accessible framework for understanding migration through a distinctly geographical lens. Going beyond traditional borders and categories, this book examines the forces that shape migration: historical, political, spatial, and invites readers to think differently about how migration is defined, governed, and experienced. Challenging conventional understandings of migration by centring geographical concepts, critical theory, and storytelling, the authors explore the production of migration knowledge and the power relations that underpin it. Readers are introduced to various forms of migration, from labour and family migration to displacement caused by climate change and conflict. Each chapter builds on practical, ethical, and conceptual tools for critically engaging with migration research and narratives, whilst fostering more inclusive and emancipatory imaginaries of migration futures. Migration: A Critical Introduction is an essential resource for upper-level undergraduate and postgraduate students of Geography, Sociology, Anthropology, International Relations, and related fields It is particularly suitable for courses on Human Geography Migration Studies and Political Geography as part of broader degree programmes in the social sciences and humanities
