

Romans Chapter 1: verses 1-15

Introduction

The book of Romans is the sixth book among the books in the New Testament. This epistle is really the chief part of the New Testament and the very purest Gospel, and is worthy not only that every Christian should know it word for word, by heart, but occupy himself with it every day, as the daily bread of the soul. It can never be read or pondered too much, and the more it is dealt with the more precious it becomes, and the better it tastes.

Authorship

All critical schools agree on the Pauline authorship of the book of Romans. The vocabulary, style, logic, and theological development are consistent with Paul's other epistles. Paul dictated this letter to a secretary named Ternius. The most accurate point that the Apostle Paul wrote this book is, in the opening line of this letter the authorship is clearly defined.

"Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle and set apart for the gospel of God" (Romans 1:1).

Place and time

Paul wrote this letter to the Romans from Corinth near the end of his third missionary journey. Several clues suggest that Paul wrote this epistle during the three months he stayed in Corinth, possibly between A. D. 55 and 56.

Historical Background

Paul purposely writing this letter to the Christians in Rome. As servant and apostle of Jesus, Paul's mission in life is to preach the gospel of Jesus to all people groups, both Jews and Gentiles. This epistle described Paul's eager to preach the gospel to his readers and Gentiles who are in Rome. Christ Himself gave Paul the mission to preach about Christ. He wants to give to them a spiritual gift and for them to mutually encourage each other's faith. Part of his reason for wanting to come to them is that his mission in life is to carry the gospel of Jesus to all people groups, many of whom are represented in Rome.
