Vol. 2: Rank, Petitions, and the Administration of Heaven: The Canon of Daoist Magic Series Laing Z.

Matthews, 2026-01-01 Most books on Daoism talk about philosophy energy or inner peace This one talks about rank law and paperwork in Heaven Volume 2 of The Canon of Daoist Magic Series opens the back office of Daoist thunder practice Drawing on the dense ritual compendium Dao Fa Hui Yuan Laing Z Matthews shows how thunder magic was never meant as free form sorcery but as an arm of celestial administration Where Vol 1 treated origins cosmology and the first thunder lineage this volume asks harder questions Who are you before Heaven What are you actually authorized to do Under what conditions if any may thunder move through you Inside you ll encounter The nine grades of celestial rank auxiliary offices and female yin administrations that keep the system balanced Ritual service ranks that reward decades of steady altar work more than sudden charisma Methodological permits licenses for specific systems such as thunder treasure and refinement methods The Jade Court petition system where every serious case begins as a written memorial to Heaven not a vague sending of energy Heavenly Treasure archives and underworld offices that hold ledgers of the living and the dead Refinement and soul recovery rites that function as spiritual therapy under law rather than sentimental sending to the light Thunder departments and generals that execute warrants instead of obeying private whim Matthews does not sanitize the tradition He presents dangerous material spirit summoning weather and external thunder operations talismanic cutting formulas aggressive breath practices rage based invocations together with the strict safeguards and karmic warnings the original texts attach to them The point is not to hand out heavy methods but to show how seriously the ancients believed power should be restrained You do not need to accept the literal existence of Jade Courts or thunder ministries to be changed by this book Behind the archaic titles lies a set of questions every practitioner healer or spiritual guide must face Who gave you this role Who can say no to you What structure keeps your certainty from turning into harm Vol 2 Rank Petitions and the Administration of Heaven is not a how to manual It is a sharp unsentimental portrait of a world that tried to bind power to responsibility under Heaven and a mirror for anyone today who dares to act in other people s lives in the name of the sacred

The Turning of the Tide Julian F. Pas, 1989 Undoubtedly the greatest problem facing religion in China today is the fundamentally irreconcilable contradiction between Marxism and religious world views These essays published by the Hong Kong Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society in association with Oxford University Press and written by an international group of scholars critically examine different aspects of the present religious state in China The Next Files G L Keady, 2024-05-12 Fresh out of school Jax de Loite an ambitious Australian First Nations girl secures a junior researcher position at NewsLine a leading national current affairs TV program Feeling her talents are underutilized in research she yearns for more challenging work Des Carter the Executive Producer of NewsLine and a long time friend of her journalist father recognizes her potential and decides to give her a chance He assigns her to The Next Files a neglected archive brimming with public submissions of supernatural events and inexplicable phenomena These files humorously named in a nod to the 90s cult TV series The X Files are a collection of enigmas no one else wants to tackle and they now land in Jax s lap In her first case Jax is tasked with interviewing a Feng Shui master brought to Sydney to dispel a ghost believed to haunt the Eight Dragons Restaurant Unfamiliar with Chinese culture she seeks the assistance of Doc Lee a half Filipino half Chinese Australian raised science student who is skeptical about the existence of ghosts Together they embark on a journey into the supernatural The plot thickens in the second story Min Min Jax and Doc are sent to investigate a headline in a western Queensland newspaper US Scientist Abducted by Min Min Lights While Jax leans towards theories of alien abduction Doc searches for a scientific explanation Their quest leads them to Pine Gap near Alice Springs where Jax ventures into the mystical realm of the Dreamtime seeking truths that transcend the known world

In the Realm of Hungry Ghosts Gabor Maté, MD,2008-02-12 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER From the author of When the Body Says No and The Myth of Normal The definitive book for understanding the roots and behaviours of addiction Dr Gabor Mat is one of the world s most revered thinkers on the psychology of addiction His radical findings based on decades of work with patients challenged by catastrophic drug addiction and mental illness has helped reframe how we view all human development In this award winning modern classic through first person accounts riveting case studies pioneering research and compassionate argument Mat takes a panoramic yet highly intimate and compassionate look at this widespread and perplexing human ailment whether it be addiction to alcohol drugs sex money or anything self destructive He presents it not as a discrete phenomenon confined to a weak willed few but as a continuum that runs through and even underpins our society not as a medical condition but rather the result of a complex interplay of personal history emotional development and brain chemistry Distilling cutting edge research from around the world In the Realm of Hungry Ghosts avoids glib self help remedies instead promoting self understanding as the first key to healing and wellness Blending personal stories and science with positive solutions and written in spellbinding prose it is a must read that will change how you see yourself others and the world

Heritage and Religion in East Asia Shu-Li Wang,Michael Rowlands,Yujie Zhu,2020-12-29 Heritage and Religion in East Asia examines how religious heritage in a mobile way plays across national boundaries in East Asia and in doing so the book provides new theoretical insights into the articulation of heritage and religion Drawing on primary comparative research carried out in four East Asian countries much of which was undertaken by East Asian scholars the book shows how the inscription of religious items as Heritage has stimulated cross border interactions among religious practitioners and boosted tourism along modern pilgrimage routes Considering how these forces encourage cross border links in heritage practices and religious movements in China Taiwan South Korea and Japan the volume also questions what role heritage plays in a region where Buddhism Taoism and other various folk religious practices are dominant Arguing that it is diversity and vibrancy that makes religious discourse in East Asia unique the contributors explore how this particularity both energizes and is empowered by heritage practices in East

Asia Heritage and Religion in East Asia enriches understanding of the impact of heritage and religious culture in modern society and will be of interest to academics and students working in heritage studies anthropology religion and East Asian studies

Buddhism in the Sung Daniel A. Getz, Peter N. Gregory, 2002-10-31 New paperback edition The Sung Dynasty 960-1279 has long been recognized as a major watershed in Chinese history Although there are recent major monographs on Sung society government literature Confucian thought and popular religion the contribution of Buddhism to Sung social and cultural life has been all but ignored Indeed the study of Buddhism during the Sung has lagged behind that of other periods of Chinese history One reason for the neglect of this important aspect of Sung society is undoubtedly the tenacity of the view that the Sung marked the beginning of an inexorable decline of Buddhism in China that extended down through the remainder of the imperial era As this book attests however new research suggests that far from signaling a decline the Sung was a period of great efflorescence in Buddhism This volume is the first extended scholarly treatment of Buddhism in the Sung to be published in a Western language It focuses largely on elite figures elite traditions and interactions among Buddhists and literati although some of the book's essays touch on ways in which elite traditions both responded to and helped shape more popular forms of lay practice and piety All of the chapters in one way or another deal with the two most important elite traditions within Sung Buddhism Chan and T'ien-t'ai Whereas most previous discussions of Buddhism in the Sung have tended to concentrate on Chan the present volume is notable for giving T'ien-t'ai its due By presenting a broader and more contextualized picture of these two traditions as they developed in the Sung this work amply reveals the vitality of Buddhism in the Sung as well as its embeddedness in the social and intellectual life of the time
