Document-Based Questions

Read each document and answer the accompanying questions to learn more about the cause of the American Revolutionary War. Then, write a short essay using evidence from at least three documents to answer the final question.

Document 1

In 1763, the British government passed the Stamp Act. This act forced newspapers and other paper goods in the American colonies. Many colonists were angry and believed the tax was unfair. Newspapers like the Pennsylvania Chronicle used powerful images and text to protest.

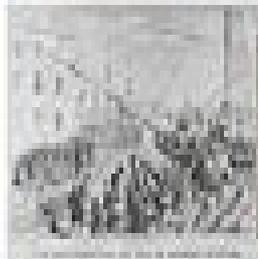

16. What message does the skull and crossbones send about how the colonists felt about the Stamp Act?

17. Why do you think the newspaper used such a dramatic image instead of just words to protest the Act?

In March 1775, the British government passed the Tea Act. This act imposed a high tax on tea. This image depicts the night of December 16, 1773, when American colonists protested the act by boarding ships in Boston harbor and throwing tea into the water. They dressed in Native American to hide their identities and represent all Americans.

18. What message are the colonists sending in the image, and what does the image suggest would British do?

19. How does the artist use the image to show the importance or impact of the Tea Act?

The American Revolution officially ended with the signing of an Treaty of Paris in September 1783. The treaty ended the Revolutionary War and guaranteed the colonies independence from Britain. The signing of the Treaty of Paris was a historic moment in American history. It was the first time that the United States had won a war against a major European power. Some believe that the treaty was a turning point in American history, leading to the nation's growth and development.
