Timothy J. Wengert

Luther The 95 Theses:

Martin Luther's 95 Theses Martin Luther, Kurt Aland, 1967 Did Martin Luther wield his hammer on the Wittenberg church door on October 31 1517 Did he even post the Ninety five Theses at all This collection of documents sheds light on the debate surrounding Luther's actions and the timing of his writing and his request for a disputation on the indulgence issue The primary documents in this book include the theses their companion sermon A Sermon on Indulgence and Grace 1518 a chronological arrangement of letters pertinent to the theses and selections from Luther's Table Talk that address the Ninety five Theses A final section contains Luther's recollections which offer today's reader the reformer's own views of the Reformation and the Ninety five Theses

Martin Luther's 95 Theses Martin Luther, 2014-03-05 The Ninety Five Theses were written by Martin Luther in 1517 and are widely regarded as the initial catalyst for the Protestant Reformation The disputation protests against clerical abuses especially the sale of indulgences The background to Luther's Ninety Five Theses centers on practices within the Catholic Church regarding baptism and absolution Significantly the Theses reject the validity of indulgences remissions of temporal punishment due for sins which have already been forgiven They also view with great cynicism the practice of indulgences being sold and thus the penance for sin representing a financial transaction rather than genuine contrition Luther argues that the sale of indulgences was a gross violation of the original intention of confession and penance and that Christians were being falsely told that they could find absolution through the purchase of indulgences Luther objected to a saying attributed to Johann Tetzel that As soon as the coin in the coffer rings the soul from purgatory springs He insisted that since forgiveness was God's alone to grant those who claimed that indulgences absolved buyers from all punishments and granted them salvation were in error Christians he said must not slacken in following Christ on account of such false assurances

Disputation on the Power of Indulgences Martin Luther,2018-04-02 The Ninety five Theses or Disputation on the Power of Indulgences are a list of propositions for an academic disputation written in 1517 by Martin Luther professor of moral theology at the University of Wittenberg Germany that started the Reformation a schism in the Catholic Church which profoundly changed Europe They advance Luther s positions against what he saw as the abuse of the practice of clergy selling plenary indulgences which were certificates believed to reduce the temporal punishment for sins committed by the purchasers or their loved ones in purgatory In the Theses Luther claimed that the repentance required by Christ in order for sins to be forgiven involves inner spiritual repentance rather than merely external sacramental confession He argued that indulgences led Christians to avoid true repentance and sorrow for sin believing that they could forgo it by purchasing an indulgence

Luther's 95 Theses Examined K B Napier,2019-08-08 Ask any Christian and he or she will agree that Luther s 95 Theses lit the match that became a worldwide fire Yet almost none have actually read the Theses This short book gives all 95 Theses in list form a chapter on what each Thesis said with a critical analysis plus an after word about their impact on the world If you think Luther condemned Indulgences read this book If you think he condemned the popes think again If you think he pinned his Theses to the church door as an act of defiance or as a rebel this book will dissuade you In short at the time he wrote the Theses he merely wanted fellow academics to join a discussion he had no intention of lighting a fire that rocked the medieval world See for yourself what the 95 Theses REALLY were you might be very surprised The author has reduced the number of Theses to about 15 whereas the original German version reduced them to 20 You will see why

Grimm,C. M. Jacobs,1957 As a pastor he had noted the bad effects of indulgences upon the members of his won congregation many of whom were going to nearby Juterbog and Zerbst in Brandenburg to buy indulgence slips from Johann Tetzel This practical question raised for him a deeper one the question of their efficacy Martin Luther & the 95 Theses Carl E Koppenhaver,2024-02 In the year 1517 a German monk named Martin Luther 1483 1546 nailed to the church door in Wittenburg his 95 Theses This was not some easy to read tract nor was it written as a treatise for the common people it was instead written as an academic dispute against what the Roman Catholic Church had been teaching at the time principally concerning the sale of indulgences or to put it more simply paying your way and that of your relatives to heaven In order to truly appreciate the magnitude of this dispute one must first understand Luther s background story because the story of his life has a great deal to do with his dispute with Roman Catholicism s soteriology This is why we have decided to republish Carl E Koppenhaver s Martin Luther coupled with an English translation of the 95 Theses which helps to summarize succinctly what God in His divine providence brought about for the good of His church In truth what Luther accomplished by nailing those 95 Theses was to start a movement that would forever change the world
