Lewis Bogdon

Black Preaching:

The Heart of Black Preaching Cleophus James LaRue,2000-01-01 LaRue provides important insights on why black preaching is strong and active and connects with the real life experiences of listeners Christian The Heart of Black Preaching Cleophus J. LaRue,1999-11-01 Cleophus LaRue argues that the extraordinary character of black preaching derives from a distinctive biblical hermeneutic that views God as involved in practical ways in the lives of African Americans This hermeneutic he believes has remained constant since the days of slavery LaRue analyzes the distinct characteristics of African American preaching and brings the insights of both theory and practice to bear on this important subject matter

The Spirituality of Black Preaching Lewis Bogdon,2016-03-28 As a scholar of the Bible and the Black Church Brogdon seeks to help young African American preachers effectively integrate biblical studies and homiletics integrate in ways that deepen sermons stimulates faith in the context of worship and strengthen churches as they seek to give witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ He seeks to provide the hundreds and thousands of African American ministers who will never attend seminary or a university yet will touch hundreds and thousands of lives with the resources they need for effective life changing preaching Contemporary African American preaching P3040 , L Susan Bond reveals the full range and diversity of African American preaching in this exploration of African American homiletical theories Portraying the many approaches that are empowering preaching in African American churches today Bond shows how different theological perspectives produce different methods of sermon preparation and delivery different strategies for selecting illustrative material and even different ways of beginning and ending sermons Her goal is not to lift up the right way to preach in the African American tradition but to show the richness and nuance contained within this powerful cultural expression Black Preaching ,1979 Transcripts of representative sermons are used to illustrate an appraisal of the language and style of the Black preaching tradition Interpreting God's Word in Black Preaching Warren H. Stewart,1984 To assist the preacher with the task of interpreting and communicating the Word so that it will be relevant and understood by the congregation Dr Stewart presents a well defined five point study of the hermeneutical process Voices in the Wilderness John L. Thomas Jr.,2018-01-30 FINALLY a scholarly description of the development of Black preaching in the United States that is accessible to the average reader but also contributes to the academic conversation about both style and theological content Written from the perspective of a seasoned practitioner and tenured practical theologian Thomas surveys Black preaching as it has responded to various social and historical time periods Starting with the brutality of chattel slavery early formations in segregated Southern life rapid migration to and urbanization in Northern cities and various events throughout the post civil rights era the book gives convincing details and examples of how the Black preacher helped to guide and sustain the masses of African American people through the wilderness of social change At the heart of the book three prime examples are presented as models of the real genius of Black preaching The reader will never again think about Reverend Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X and the Reverend Jesse Jackson in the same way A special chapter is devoted to the contributions of Black women preachers along with a closing chapter that makes new proposals for the future The book is a provocative and critical analysis of why Black preaching still matters Introduction to the Practice of African American Preaching Frank A. Thomas, 2016-11-15 The Introduction to African American Preaching is an important groundbreaking book This book acknowledges African American preaching as an academic discipline and invites all students and preachers into a scholarly dynamic and useful exploration of the topic Author Frank Thomas opens with a bus tour study of African American preaching He shows how African American preaching has gradually moved from an almost exclusively oral to an oral written tradition Readers will gain insight into the history of the study of the African American preaching tradition and catch the author's enthusiasm for it Next Thomas traces the relationship between homiletics and rhetoric in Western preaching demonstrating how African American preaching is inherently theological and rhetorical He then explores the question what is black preaching Thomas introduces the reader to methods of close reading and ideological criticism And then demonstrates how to use these methods using a sermon by Gardner Calvin Taylor as his example The next chapter considers the question what is excellence in black preaching The next chapter seeks to create bridges and dialogue within the field of homiletics and in particular the Euro American homiletic tradition The goal of this chapter is to clearly demonstrate connections between the African American preaching tradition and the field of homiletics Thomas next turns to questions about the relevancy of the church to the Millennial generation Specifically how will the African American church remain relevant to this generation which is so deeply concerned with social justice Black Preaching Henry H. Mitchell, 1990 Henry H Mitchell has completely revised and integrated his popular books The Recovery of Preaching and Black Preaching for seminarians and pastors both Black and White who are seeking to add power and vision to their sermons Mitchell persuasively demonstrates that Black culture and preaching style are vital for the empowerment of Black congregations and have much to offer the preaching method of all preachers By focusing on the use of storytelling imagination and style of preaching rooted in African American culture Mitchell spotlights effective techniques for lively preaching Black United Methodists Preach! Dr. Gennifer Benjamin Brooks, Gregory V. Leo W. Curry, 2012-03-01 What accounts for the spiritual power and vitality of black preaching What are the distinctive contributions of black preaching to the life of The United Methodist Church How must black preaching evolve if it is to rise to the new challenges facing the UMC Fifteen distinguished preachers from across the connection answer these and other questions in this important and illuminating volume Gennifer Benjamin Brooks not only edits this collect she also shares one of her own sermons along with the sermons of the following fourteen other preachers Rose Booker Jones Leo W Curry Safiyah Fosua Telley Lynette Gadson Linda Lee Pamela R Lightsey Okitakoyi Lundula Tracy S Malone Gregory Palmer Vance P Ross Robert

O Simpson Rodney P Smothers James E Swanson Sr and Dorothy Watson Tatem Power in the Pulpit Cleophus James LaRue,2002-01-01 In this book scholar and preacher Cleophus J LaRue brings together the voices of twelve of America s most influential African American preachers Each of these renowned preachers describes his or her method of sermon preparation and includes a sample sermon for illustration An excellent how to manual for pastors and students Power in the Pulpit is both sage wisdom on the art of preaching and an inspiring look at some of the most prominent figures in the black church This is My Story Cleophus James LaRue,2005-01-01 African American women continue to confess their call to ministry even when they know such a confession may cause them to face criticism and even ostracism from many of the same men and women who nurtured them in the faith In This Is My Story thirteen successful African American women clergy tell the powerful inspirational and sometimes heartbreaking stories of their calls and ministerial journeys which they experienced in the midst of anguish uncertainty and in many cases unfriendly leadership environments Each of the women includes a sermon of particular importance to her The Black Experience in Religion Charles Eric Lincoln,1974 I Believe I'll Testify Cleophus J. LaRue,2011-01-01 Cleo LaRue is one of the best loved preachers and writers about preaching In past volumes he has brought together great collections of African American preaching to showcase the best preaching from across the country Here he offers his own insights into what makes for great preaching Filled with telling anecdotes LaRue s book recognizes that while great preaching comes from somewhere it also must go somewhere so preachers need to use the most artful language to send the Word on its journey Teaching Preaching Katie Geneva Cannon,2007-10-15 If you ain t got no proposition you ain t got no sermon neither This was the battle cry of Isaac Rufus Clark one of the most influential and colorful professors of homiletics in the black church in the twentieth century Clark taught at the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta for twenty seven years 1962 1989 In Teaching Preaching Katie Cannon one of Clark s myriad preaching prot g s conceives her role as purely presentational to bring Clark face to face with a reading audience allow him to explain the formal elements of preaching from the inside out Teaching Preaching is an invaluable resource for ministers who struggle from Sunday to Sunday to find their ethical voice in the preparation of each and every sermon Rethinking Celebration Cleophus J. LaRue,2016-08-01 This book is a clarion call for African American preachers to think more deeply about the aims and ends of their preachingnamely to stop putting so much emphasis on celebratory endings to our sermons and focus more on the substantive content in our sermons Our so called celebratory preaching designed to excite the congregation into action through a highly emotional closing of the sermon has had the opposite effect Rather than inducing action it has lulled generations of black congregants to sleep While we are jumping up and down shouting and waving our hands in the air every Sunday during the worship hour we seem not to notice the growing number of church and unchurched alike who are becoming powerfully alienated from any form of institutional religion from the introduction Celebration is a term that has long been used to describe African American preaching characterized by content that affirms

the goodness and powerful intervention of God as well as style that builds from quiet beginnings to an emotionally rich crescendo in conclusion Cleophus J LaRue argues that while celebration is one of African American preaching s greatest gifts to the larger church too many black preachers have become content with the form of celebration volume vocabulary pitch speed rhythm and the like to the neglect of its essence the proclamation of the mighty acts of God in the lives of their congregations and communities This kind of preaching LaRue contends fails to address the ongoing problems of the African American community and is powerless to prevent the growing disaffection of black America with the black church In words both prophetic and practical LaRue suggests ways to improve black preaching that honor both the form and the power of the African American homiletical practice of celebration Preachers will learn how to use celebration more selectively and as part of a fully formed preaching practice rather than as a means of distracting the congregation from pressing social and theological questions The book includes six illustrative sermons from LaRue as well as Paschal Sampson Wilkinson Sr Brian K Blount and Claudette Anderson Copeland More Power in the Pulpit Cleophus J. LaRue, 2009-04-20 In this companion and sequel to the best selling Power in the Pulpit 2002 which has sold over 11 000 copies more of America s best known and most influential African American preachers describe how they go about preparing their sermons Each preacher also presents a sermon that highlights his or her particular method of sermon preparation This book is an excellent how to manual for pastors and students presenting sage advice and wisdom on the art of preaching and an inspirational look at the work of some of the most prominent figures in the life of the black church Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life

God's Trombones James Weldon Johnson, 1927 The inspirational sermons of the old Negro preachers are set down as poetry in this collection a classic for more than forty years frequently dramatized recorded and anthologized Mr Johnson tells in his preface of hearing these same themes treated by famous preachers in his youth some of the sermons are still current and like the spirituals they have taken a significant place in black folk art In transmuting their essence into original and moving poetry the author has also ensured the survival of a great oral tradition Book jacket Memorials of the Right Reverend Charles Pettit McIlvaine Charles Pettit McIlvaine, 1882
