Business Law Exam Questions Canada Practice:

Business Law in Canada Richard A. Yates, Teresa Bereznicki-Korol, Trevor Clarke, 1998 Appropriate for one semester courses in Business Law at both college and university levels in Alberta This Alberta specific text proceeds beyond general principles of law and describes the case law and particular statutory provisions that regulate business in Alberta Legal concepts and Canadian business applications are introduced in a concise one semester format The text is structured so that five chapters on contracts form the nucleus of the course and the balance provides stand alone sections that the instructor may choose to cover in any order The design is more reader friendly with a visually appealing four colour format as well as case synopses and extracts to enliven the solid text The result is a book that maintains the strong legal content of previous editions while introducing more real life examples of business law in practice

Imperatives for Legal Education

Research Ben Golder, Marina Nehme, Alex Steel, Prue Vines, 2019-08-28 In the last few decades university teaching has been recognised as an activity which can be studied and improved through educational scholarship In some disciplines this is now well established It remains emergent in legal education The field is rich with questions to be answered issues to be raised This book provides the first overall review of legal education scholarship The chapters outline the history of legal education research and provide a detailed analysis of the trends in areas of publication Beyond this the book suggests a typology for further conceptualising the field and a series of suggested paths for future research The book originated from the 2017 UNSW conference Research in Legal Education State of the Art It features internationally respected authors who bring their perspectives on how legal education as a field of research should be conceptualised The collection is arranged into three themes First a historical view is taken of the emergence of legal education scholarship and its roots that predate modern educational theory Secondly the book provides overviews of the extant field of publications highlighting areas of interest and neglect and delineating the trends in current publication Thirdly the book provides a set of suggested typologies for describing legal education research and a series of essays for future directions which both critique current approaches and provide inspiration for future directions The State of Legal Education Research represents an authoritative introduction to the field a set of conceptual tools with which to describe it and inspiration for researchers to expand and grow research into legal education

Wesley Cragg: A Canadian Business Ethics Pioneer Mark S. Schwartz, 2026-02-20 This business ethics collection is composed of a variety of original and unique journal articles published by the very first chair of business ethics in Canada Dr Arthur Wesley Cragg As a moral philosopher Dr Cragg delves into a range of business ethics topics including stakeholder theory business ethics in North America human rights corruption bribery as well as the future of business ethics The book addresses such questions as What are the current trends in business ethics research teaching and training in North America In an industry like mining who counts as a stakeholder and how do managers talk about corporate responsibilities To what extent do both the business and ethics case arguments supporting stakeholder theory hold up to scrutiny Why should corporations obey the law Business ethics has certainly matured as a distinct academic field however critical analysis of the very topics falling within the field has rarely taken place This book addresses that gap and would be of great interest to business ethics academics business ethics researchers and practitioners and graduate level students interested in the field of business ethics
