Inocian, 2018-10-09 This book presents an assortment of teaching and assessment strategies appropriate for 21st century learners based on the author s 25 years of teaching experience in private and state school institutions in the Philippines It highlights the outcomes based assessment of learning the curriculum basics for arts based teaching learning activities based on the integrated arts for an effective instructional process and examples in the teaching of critical thinking communication collaboration and creativity known as the Four Cs While the monograph focuses on the author s local context a plethora of citations provides clear connections that address learner diversity in recent global education contexts The text is a useful guide for students who want to pursue a degree in teaching as well as novice and expert teachers university professors and advocates for teaching and learning The New Politics of the Textbook Heather Hickman, Brad J. Porfilio, 2012-10-13 In an age of unprecedented corporate and political control over life inside of educational institutions this book provides a needed intervention to investigate how the economic and political elite use traditional artifacts in K 16 schools to perpetuate their interests at the expense of minoritized social groups The contributors provide a comprehensive examination of how textbooks the most dominant cultural force in which corporations and political leaders impact the schooling curricula shape students thoughts and behavior perpetuate power in dominant groups and trivialize social groups who are oppressed on the structural axes of race class gender sexuality and dis ability Several contributors also generate critical insight in how power shapes the production of textbooks and evaluate whether textbooks still perpetuate dominant Western narratives that normalize and privilege patriotism militarism consumerism White supremacy heterosexism rugged individualism technology and a positivistic conception of the world Finally the book highlights several textbooks that challenge readers to rethink their stereotypical views of the Other to reflect upon the constitutive forces causing oppression in schools and in the wider society and to reflect upon how to challenge corporate and political dominance over knowledge production El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005, 2005 Brief Review Gordon Korman, 2004 Interpreting Islam Hastings Donnan, 2002-02-15 Islam is one of the most misunderstood concepts in the West Myths and stereotypes surround it This clear and penetrating volume helps readers to make sense of Islam It offers a penetrating guide to the diversity and richness of contemporary knowledge about Islam and Muslim society Throughout the emphasis is upon the value of pluralistic approaches to Islam rather than condensing complexity with unifying concepts such as Orientalism Interdisciplinary in scope and organization the book cuts through the bewildering and seemingly anarchic diversity of contemporary knowledge about Islam and Muslim society The methodological difficulties and advantages of Western researchers focusing on Islam are fully documented The book demonstrates how gender age status and insider outsider status impacts upon research and inflects research findings Education about Asia, 2005 Jews and Christians - Parting Ways in the First Two Centuries CE? Jens Schröter, Benjamin A. Edsall, Joseph Verheyden, 2021-08-23 The present volume is based on a conference held in October 2019 at the Faculty of Theology of Humboldt University Berlin as part of a common project of the Australian Catholic University the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and the Humboldt University Berlin The aim is to discuss the relationships of Jews and Christians in the first two centuries CE against the background of recent debates which have called into question the image of parting ways for a description of the relationships of Judaism and Christianity in antiquity One objection raised against this metaphor is that it accentuates differences at the expense of commonalities Another critique is that this image looks from a later perspective at historical developments which can hardly be grasped with such a metaphor It is more likely that distinctions between Jews Christians Jewish Christians Christian Jews etc are more blurred than the image of parting ways allows In light of these considerations the contributions in this volume discuss the cogency of the parting of the ways model with a look at prominent early Christian writers and places and suggest more appropriate metaphors to describe the relationships of Jews and Christians in the early period The Annual American Catalogue, 1897 Islam Aslam Syed, 2003-07 With the end of the Cold War the American political establishment perceived Islam as the new enemy The 1993 explosion at the World Trade Center the 1998 bombing of the American embassies in Africa and the events of 9 11 all culminated in substantiating this perception The War on Terrorism has raised several complicated issues surrounding the relationship between the United States and Islam With America s increasing involvement in the Middle East it is imperative for Muslims to understand America but at the same time Americans must learn to understand Islam The progress of civilization hangs on the ability for cooperation and understanding between these cultures Although this challenge of removing the clash between these two cultures is indeed pressing it is not new Negative images of Islam have persisted in the United States throughout its history This volume of The

The God of Old Greg Forbes,2000-10-01 This book is a study of the parables unique to the Third Gospel aiming in particular to establish a link between Luke s choice of these parables and his overall purpose in writing In comparison to the synoptic kingdom parables one distinguishing feature of the Lukan parables is their more personal portrait of the character and the nature of God himself Luke s desire is to demonstrate to his readers whoever they are that in Christianity the realization of the Jewish hope has occurred The parables promote this idea by offering both continuity OT and contrast contemporary Judaism in their portrait of God Thus as well as operating in a parenetic sense the parables also help to legitimize Luke s argument regarding fulfilment

Adolescent Girlhood and Literary Culture at the Fin de Siècle Beth Rodgers,2016-10-06 This book examines the construction of adolescent girlhood across a range of genres in the closing decades of the nineteenth century It argues that there was a preoccupation with defining characterising and naming adolescent girlhood at the fin de si cle These daughters of today juvenile spinsters and modern girls as the press variously termed them occupying a borderland between childhood and womanhood were seen to be inextricably connected to late nineteenth century modernity they were the products of changes taking place in education and employment and of the challenge to traditional conceptions of femininity presented by the Woman Question The author argues that the shifting nature of the modern adolescent girl made her a malleable cultural figure and a meeting point for many of the prevalent debates associated with fin de siècle society By juxtaposing diverse material from children s books and girls magazines to New Woman novels and psychological studies the author contextualises adolescent girlhood as a distinct but complex cultural category at the end of the nineteenth century
