A Qui Appartient Le Maroc:

A qui appartient le Maroc ? Moumen Diouri, 1992-01-01 Political Regimes in the Arab World Ferran Izquierdo Brichs, 2012-11-27 One of the implications of Orientalism is that the Arab world as a homogenous entity is often analysed as an anomaly within the international system This book argues that despite their differences societies across the globe ultimately construct their own history according to very similar dynamics and tensions The methodological approach of this book using different countries within the Arab world as models offers the reader an analysis of relations between the elites and their opposition in a variety of settings A definition of the political structure of each country is drawn from this analysis before potential future scenarios as according to country specific experts are proposed This model provides a useful contribution to students and scholars of political science and international relations Through providing a comparative study of the political regimes currently operating in the Arab world their elites civil society power resources and political resistance this book illustrates that despite the image of homogeneity sometimes portrayed by the Arab world it is the multiplicity of models and heterogeneity of regimes that constitute reality Political Regimes in the Arab World Ferran Izquierdo, 2013 One of the implications of Orientalism is that the Arab world as a homogenous entity is often analysed as an anomaly within the international system This book argues that despite their differences societies across the globe ultimately construct their own history according to very similar dynamics and tensions The methodological approach of this book using different countries within the Arab world as models offers the reader an analysis of relations between the elites and their opposition in a variety of settings A definition of the political structure of each country is drawn from this analysis before potential future scenarios as according to country specific experts are proposed This model provides a useful contribution to students and scholars of political science and international relations Through providing a comparative study of the political regimes currently operating in the Arab world their elites civil society power resources and political resistance this book illustrates that despite the image of homogeneity sometimes portrayed by the Arab world it is the multiplicity of models and heterogeneity of regimes that constitute reality Historical Dictionary of Morocco Thomas K. Park, Aomar Boum, 2006-01-16 The Kingdom of Morocco achieved its independence in 1956 after over 40 years as a French protectorate Since its independence it has further expanded its area of control by reclaiming the formerly international city of Tangier as well as annexing Western Sahara from Spain in the 1970s In 1777 Morocco became the first nation to recognize the United States and the Moroccan American Treaty of Friendship of 1783 is the oldest unbroken friendship treaty with the U S Morocco of the past and present are covered in this second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Morocco A comprehensive introduction focusing on its history provides a helpful synopsis of the kingdom and is supplemented with a useful chronology of major events Hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on former rulers current leaders ancient capitals significant locations influential institutions and crucial aspects of the economy society culture and religion form the core of the book A

Regionalization and Globalization in the Modern World Economy Alex E. Fernandez Jilberto, Andre Mommen, 2002-01-22 This collection explores the importance of regionalization and globalization to the world economy particularly questioning whether the world economy is characterized by increasing regionalization rather than globalization International contributors explore the processes in the Pacific area the Americas Africa and Europe and make an important contribution to current debates in development economics

Farida Benlyazid and Moroccan Cinema Florence Martin, 2024-02-17 This book project unfolds and analyzes the work of Moroccan director producer and scriptwriter Farida Benlyazid whose career extends from the beginning of cinema in independent Morocco to the present This study of her work and career provides a unique perspective on an under represented cinema the gender politics of cinema in Morocco and the contribution of Arab women directors to global cinema and to a gendered understanding of Muslim ethics and aesthetics in film A pioneer in Moroccan cinema Farida Benlyazid has been successful at negotiating the sometimes abrupt turns of Morocco s rocky 20th century history from Morocco under French occupation to the advent of Moroccan independence in 1956 the end of the international status of Tangier her native city in 1959 the years of lead under the reign of Hassan II and finally Mohamed VI s current reign since 1999 As a result she has a long view of Morocco s politics of self representation as well as of the representation of Moroccan women on screen

Imagined Museums Katarzyna Pieprzak, 2010-01-01 Imagined Museumsexamines the intertwined politics surrounding art and modernization in Morocco from 1912 to the present by considering the structure of the museum not only as a modern institution but also as a national monument to modernity asking what happens when museum monuments start to crumble In an analysis of museum history exhibition policy the lack of national museum space for modern art and postmodern exhibit spaces in Morocco Katarzyna Pieprzak focuses on the role that art plays in the social fabric of a modernizing Morocco She argues that the decay of colonial and national institutions of culture has invited the rethinking of the museum and generated counter museums to stage new narratives of art memory and modernity Through these spaces she explores a range of questions How is modernity imagined locally How are claims to modernity articulated How is Moroccan modernity challenged globally In this first cultural history of modern Moroccan art and its museums Pieprzak goes beyond the investigation of national institutions to treat the history and evolution of multiple museums from official state and corporate exhibition spaces to informal popular street level art and performance spaces as cultural architectures that both enshrine the past and look to the future

Postwar Jewish Displacement and Rebirth Françoise S. Ouzan, Manfred Gerstenfeld, 2014-06-26 This volume offers insights into the major Jewish migration movements and rebuilding of European Jewish communities in the mid twentieth century Its chapters illustrate many facets of the Jews often traumatic post war experiences People had to find their way when returning to their countries of origin or starting from scratch in a new land Their experiences and hardships from country to country and from one community of migrants to another are analyzed here

The mass exodus of Jews from Arab and Muslim countries is also addressed to provide a necessary and broader insight into how those challenges were met as both migrations were a result of persecution as well as discrimination La France et ses colonies (géographie et statistique) Emile Levasseur,1893 La France avec ses colonies Émile Levasseur,1893 Le maréchal Bugeaud, d'après sa correspondance intime et des documents inéd., 1784-1849 Henri Amédée Lelorgne Ideville (comte d'),1882 Le maréchal Bugeaud, d'après sa correspondance intime et des documents inédits, 1784 - 1849, par H. d'Ideville H. d' Ideville,1882 Le continent Africain Graf Karl Rudolf Christian Philipp Ernst Kinsky,1897 Bulletin trimestriel de géographie et d'archéologie ,1888 Morocco Under King Hassan Stephen O.
