I was having a crazy dream. For some reason, my face was covered in sticky honey, and a bear was charging toward me! It pounced on me and started licking my face! Yuck. I quickly jerked awake to escape, but for some reason the licking didn't stop! I also realized that something small was running back and forth across my chest. I opened my eyes, and there staring back at me was a puppy!

"Awesome!" I yelled. I've wanted a puppy for so long, and here was this adorable brown creature looking up at me. I suddenly realized that today was my birthday! I looked at the doorway and saw my mother smirking at me.

"Happy Birthday, Anisa!" she said.

I ran to hug her with the puppy in my arms. "Thank you so much! I didn't think you'd ever let me have one."

"Well, now that you're 14, I figured it was about time. What are you going to name her?"

I studied the puppy's rich chocolate fur and long, floppy ears. "I think I'll name you Slobber since you just slobbered all over me!" I said, and as if she understood me, she started licking my face all over again!
