This book is based on selected papers from a major international congress of the same name that was held at the University of Calgary in July 1997. The contributors come from Canada, England, Italy, United States, Hong Kong, and New Zealand where they are researchers at major universities. The papers are organized into four sections: 1. Context of Families, 2. Family Adjustment and Transitions, 3. Child and Adolescent Development and Attachment. The book sets out to bring together advanced research by psychologists, social workers, physicians, sociologists, and other social scientists on the interface between society, the family, children, adolescents, and other family members.

Loose-leaf Version for How Children Develop Jenny Saffran, Robert S. Siegler, Elizabeth Gershoff, Nancy Eisenberg, Campbell Leaper, Judy S. DeLoache, 2017-02-06. How Children Develop has established itself as the topically organized textbook teachers and researchers trust for the most up to date perspectives on child development. The authors, each a well known scientist and educator, have earned that trust by introducing core concepts and impactful discoveries with an unparalleled integration of theory, cultural research, and applications, all in a style that is authoritative yet immediately understandable and relevant to students. The new edition has been rigorously updated and welcomes co-author Elizabeth Gershoff, The University of Texas at Austin, who brings a breadth of research and teaching experience to the discussions of social and emotional development. It is also more interactive than ever before with richer integration between the book and its interactive study features in LaunchPad.
