

1.1 Less stuff, more happiness

TED TALKS

- 1 CEC1 Watch the TED Talk. Number the five topics (a-e) in the order Graham Hill discusses them.
- examples of situations where we feel comfortably with less
  - five ways to 'lose' stuff
  - the general storage industry
  - the contents of the box 'Shedload'
  - 40% of all houses had 20 m<sup>2</sup> of unwanted space in 2012
- 2 Work in pairs. Check your answers to Exercise 1.
- 3 CEC2 Watch the TED Talk. Number the five topics (a-e) in the order Graham Hill discusses them.
- examples of situations where we feel comfortably with less
  - five ways to 'lose' stuff
  - the general storage industry
  - the contents of the box 'Shedload'
  - 40% of all houses had 20 m<sup>2</sup> of unwanted space in 2012
- 4 CEC3 How much of the talk can you remember? Answer the questions. Then repeat the test just 24 hours later! (a-e) of the talk again and check your answers.
- How much has the typical living space in the USA increased in the past 50 years?
  - In addition to having more space, what other two things have increased for the average North American?
  - What, significantly, hasn't increased for North Americans in the past 50 years?
  - What three benefits of having less stuff outweigh a smaller space than Graham Hill has?
  - How does he suggest we 'tidy' all of possessions that don't need to be kept?

- 5 CEC4 Watch the second part (a-e) of the test again. What examples does Hill give for the three main experiences it is up to the listener?
- Get your possessions – not the experience – broken to open the door
  - Repeat the mantra: 'What is this?'
  - Use functional space arrangements
- 6 CEC5 Watch the third part (a-e) of the test again. Answer the questions.
- How much does Graham Hill suggest we should reduce our living space by?
  - What does he point out about the people who are spending the 100 feet?
  - What does he say 'the ceiling' will give us more of?
  - What does he suggest we do next?
- 7 CEC6 Use a list of examples from the CECs in the TED Talk. How do you think people of living space / amount of material possessions compare in your own country?

VOCABULARY IN CONTEXT

- 1 CEC7 Match the ideas from the TED Talk. Choose the correct meaning of the words.
- 2 Complete the sentences in your own words. Then discuss with a partner.
- I tried to cut my possessions radically, I ended by getting rid of ...
  - My personal mantra is ...
  - My ... arrangements.

CRITICAL THINKING Identifying aims

- 1 Look at the list of reasons for giving a talk. Which most accurately describes the main aim of Graham Hill's TED Talk?
- to entertain by telling an interesting and sometimes funny personal story
  - to give the listener new information
  - to persuade using objective facts
  - to charm and win the listener to make a specific decision or choice
  - to persuade by making an emotional appeal
- 2 Read the comments about the TED Talk. Which one of them mentions details that show what Hill's main aim was?

Presentation comments
1	People – The talk is so boring. I couldn't see any point. I thought it was supposed to be about how to make less stuff.
2	Bill – It's not so boring with Graham Hill, but even though you're usually encouraging people, I think it's a bit more than just 'be a happy world warrior'.
3	Steve – Good job, and certainly has been one of the best ones I've seen.

The comments were created for the activity.

PRESENTATION SKILLS Using props

- 1 Prepare a design extremely quickly and for presentation. A well-chosen prop:
- attracts the audience's curiosity or holds attention
  - emphasises a central focus
  - helps clarify or reinforce an idea
  - draws the audience closer to your ideas
  - can help the audience visualize a complex idea or process
  - works up an example
  - isn't distracting
  - follows your talk naturally

- 1 CEC8 Look at the Presentation tip box. Then watch how Graham Hill uses his cardboard box in the TED Talk. Answer the questions.
- How does Hill's use of his cardboard box and contents fit with?
  - How would he have done the talk for most of the talk. Do you think he has a 'mantra' to the audience? What? Why not?
  - What other props might Graham use to make the same point?
- 2 Work in pairs. Prepare a two-minute mini presentation. Make some brief notes on one of these topics. Think of a simple prop you could use to illustrate each of the talk topics.
- an addition
  - the benefits of regular exercise
  - money spent by the public on holiday abroad
  - a comparison of the size of homes and living space around the world
  - the working lives of factory employees
- 3 Work with a new partner. Take turns to give your presentation. Remember the advice from the Presentation tip box to help you use your prop effectively.
