Risk of GBV for women and girls in CVA programs is mitigated

Objective

PDM surveys and other M&E tools in 2 countries are re-designed with validated indicators* that detect GBV risk to women and girls in CVA programming

Field-based M&E staff can analyze and synthesize PDM data for GBV risks; and can feedback findings to improve CVA programming for women and girls

Evidence corroborating the presence of GBV risks within CVA programming is produced, including:

1) List of validated indicators* that CVA actors can include in their PDM tools to better detect and mitigate GBV risk to women and girls in CVA programming; and

2) Templates of participatory group discussion guides that CVA actors can use to validate GBV risk indicators to their context

Primary Outcomes

1) Disaggregate PDM data and appraise survey tools in 2 countries to determine:

a. If current indicators in PDM tools are sufficient to detect GBV risk in CVA programming; and

b. What other indicators* can be included to detect and monitor other aspects of GBV risk in CVA programming

2) Host consultative, participatory sessions with field-based humanitarian M&E staff in 2 countries to:

a. Discuss gaps in current PDM tools in regards to detecting and monitoring GBV risk; and

b. Workshop lists of potential indicators* that can be used for improved monitoring of GBV risk in CVA programming

3) Conduct qualitative participatory group discussions with women and girls in 2 countries to:

a. Further explore how they experience and perceive risk of and safety from GBV while accessing CVA; and

b. Validate the lists of potential indicators* for monitoring GBV risk in CVA programming

Activities

*These will include context-specific indicators relevant for specific countries, and 'global' indicators that may be broadly relevant for CVA actors across multiple contexts

Honour Based Crimes and the Law Mukaddes Gorar,2021-05-10 Honour based violence and abuse manifests itself in different forms and this book offers a comprehensive understanding of this phenomenon This book argues that the limits of honour crimes must be defined more widely so that they include conducts and behaviours that originate from the patriarchal notion of honour such as honour based oppression and breast ironing The book provides a critical analysis and synthesis of the law in England and Wales and in the international human rights sphere The relevant domestic legislation and cases are examined to reflect on whether adequate protection is provided for the victims and potential victims of honour based violence and abuse Since honour based violence is a violation of human rights the relevant international human rights law is examined to illustrate the perception of such crimes in the international arena The effectiveness of any remedy for victims of honour based violence and abuse depends on its capability to change deep rooted behaviours in communities with honour based patriarchal values This book argues that the law does not provide the effective impact required in part due to patriarchal structures and that more efforts should be dedicated to changes in education It is held that there is a need for an educational programme that is especially designed to tackle violence and promote gender equality The book will be essential reading for academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of Human Rights Law Criminal Law and Gender Studies
