PART I: PHRASES

DIRECTIONS

On the right side of this page you will find 18 words or phrases. Each of these phrases (or words) represents some quality upon which you may place some degree of "value" or importance, depending on your own feelings, thoughts, decisions, or beliefs.

Read all of the phrases carefully, taking a few moments to reflect on their meanings for you personally.

Write the number "1" on the line in front of the phrase which represents the highest value for you, the phrase or word which is most positive or pleasant to you. Then, write a "2" by the phrase or word which is next best or next most positive or pleasant to you, etc.

Number the phrases or words to show the order of their respective value or priority to you. List a different number for each of the 18 words or phrases. The number "18" should be in front of the word or phrase which has least value or which is most negative or unpleasant to you.

Again, use each number only one time. Rank the words or phrases with "1" being the most pleasant or "18" being the most unpleasant.

You may begin.

- _____ A good meal
- _____ A technical improvement
- _____ Timeliness / timidity / timidity

Please read the directions carefully as they are somewhat different from the directions for Part I.

PART II: QUOTATIONS

DIRECTIONS

On the right side of this page you will find 18 quotations. Each quotation represents a circumstance upon which you may place some degree of "value" or importance, depending on your own feelings, thoughts, decisions, or beliefs.

Read all of the quotations carefully, taking a few moments to reflect on their meanings for you personally.

The phrase "my work" does not refer to a particular job, but to the vocation or profession which you are following at the present time or what you understand to be the primary "calling" of your life. You may substitute "what I do" for "my work."

Write the number "1" on the line in front of the quotation which represents what you agree with the most, the quotation which holds the highest value for you and is the most positive to you.

Number the quotations to show the order of their respective value or priority to you. List a different number for each of the 18 words or phrases. The number "18" should be in front of the quotation you disagree with the most, which holds the least value and is the most negative to you.

Again, use each number only one time. Rank the quotations with "1" being the quotation you agree with the most or "18" being the quotation you disagree with the most.
