The Haunted Hotel Wilkie Collins,2026-01-06T20:20:27Z One of Wilkie Collins shorter novels The Haunted Hotel was published in 1878 as a monthly serial in six parts in Belgravia magazine Most of the dramatic and sensational parts of the novel are set in Venice and feature more of an emphasis on the supernatural than is usual in Collins work The story deals with the death of the wealthy Baron Montbarry in a hotel in Venice This follows his inexplicable breaking off of a previous engagement to a pretty young woman and his subsequent marriage to a mysterious Countess an unhealthy looking widow Montbarry s younger brother and the young woman he had spurned set out to discover more about his death The novel is considered by at least one biographer to be something of a potboiler written because Collins was desperate for money So desperate was he that he subsequently sold the translation and international rights to the novel getting himself into legal trouble with the original publisher for doing so without their permission This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks
