

MODULE - 9 LECTURE NOTES – 3*MULTI-CRITERIA DECISION MAKING*INTRODUCTION

Multicriterion decision making (MCDM) is a process of evaluating real world situations, based on various qualitative / quantitative criteria in certain / uncertain / risky environments to suggest a course of action / choice/ strategy / policy among the available options. In this lecture we will discuss about the structured decision making and various MCDM methods.

STRUCTURED DECISION MAKING

The evaluation of multicriterion situations using conventional approaches may be difficult. A structured decision making (SDM) is necessary to visualize the decision making. It also helps in replicating the same steps if the given decision is proved to be right. The steps in SDM are shown in figure 1. These steps are to be followed to arrive at an effective decision.

The Development of an Integrated Planning and Decision Support System (IPDSS) for Land Consolidation Demetris Demetriou, 2013-11-01 This book provides an extensive review of three interrelated issues land fragmentation land consolidation and land reallocation and it presents in detail the theoretical background design development and application of a prototype integrated planning and decision support system for land consolidation The system integrates geographic information systems GIS and artificial intelligence techniques including expert systems ES and genetic algorithms GAs with multi criteria decision methods MCDM both multi attribute MADM and multi objective MODM The system is based on four modules for measuring land fragmentation automatically generating alternative land redistribution plans evaluating those plans and automatically designing the land partitioning plan The presented research provides a new scientific framework for land consolidation planning both in terms of theory and practice by presenting new findings and by developing better tools and methods embedded in an integrated GIS environment It also makes a valuable contribution to the fields of GIS and spatial planning as it provides new methods and ideas that could be applied to improve the former for the benefit of the latter in the context of planning support systems From the 1960s ambitious research activities set out to observe regarding IT support of the complex and time consuming redistribution processes within land consolidation without any practically relevant results until now This scientific work is likely to close that gap This distinguished publication is highly recommended to land consolidation planning experts researchers and academics alike Prof Dr Ing Joachim Thomas M nster Germany Planning support systems take new scientific tools based on GIS optimisation and simulation and use these to inform the process of plan making and policy This book is one of the first to show how this can be consistently done and it is a triumph of demonstrating how such systems can be made operational Essential reading for planners analysts and GI scientists Prof Michael Batty University College London Decision Support Systems and Electronic Commerce ,2003-04
