Monsieur Ibrahim English Translation:

A Literary Translation in the Making Claudine Borg, 2022-10-14 This book presents a holistic picture of the practice of an experienced literary translator working in situ highlighting the value of in depth process studies for the discipline and offering a model for future similar studies Bringing together Cognitive Translation Studies CTS and literary translation Borg interrogates existing assumptions in CTS and sheds light on the value of a combined look at both cognitive and social processes in literary translation The volume extends the scope of existing CTS studies with its comprehensive examination of the work of one translator and exploration of the wide range of materials from draft to finished translation This unique model allows for a greater understanding of the actions decisions motivations and work practices of individual translators as well as of their interactions with other participants in the practice of a literary translation Making the case for in depth process research in illuminating the dynamics of translation production and working practices this innovative book will be of interest to students and scholars in translation and interpreting studies especially those interested in literary translation and cognitive approaches

The Tarikh-i-Rashidi Mirza Muhammad Haidar, 1895 Series of League of Nations Publications, 1930 Luzac's Oriental List and Book Review, 1927 Theology and the Arts Ruth Illman, W. Alan Smith, 2013-06-07 This book brings the emerging fields of practical theology and theology of the arts into a dialogue beyond the bias of modern systematic and constructive theology The authors draw upon postmodern post secular feminist liberation and dialogical dialectical philosophy and theology and their critiques of the narrow modern emphases on reason and the scientific method as the model for all knowledge Such a practical theology of the arts focuses the work of theology on the actual practices that engage the arts in their various forms as the means of interpreting and understanding the nature of the communities and their members as well as the mechanisms through which these communities engage in transformative work to make persons and neighborhoods whole This book presents its theological claims through the careful analysis of several stories of communities around the world that have engaged in transformational practices through a specific art form investigating communities from Europe the Middle East South America and the U S The case studies explored include Jewish Christian Muslim Druze indigenous and sometimes agnostic subjects involved in visual art music dance theatre documentary film and literature Theology and the Arts demonstrates that the challenges of a postmodern and post secular context require a fundamental rethinking of theology that focuses on discrete practices of faithful communities rather than one dimensional theories about religion

Jewish-Muslim Interactions Samuel Sami Everett, Rebekah Vince, 2020 This volume analyses Jewish Muslim interactions across North Africa and France in the 20th and 21st centuries through an examination of performance culture across the genres of theatre music film art and stand up We explore influence and cooperation between Jewish and Muslim performers from Algeria Tunisia Morocco and diaspora communities in France
