

Outwitting the Devil Summary

By Napoleon Hill

If you could do anything in the world, what would it be? So what's standing in the way of pursuing this goal? Did you know that according to Napoleon Hill, 98% of us are governed by fear?

Outwitting the Devil was written in 1938 by the author known as "the maker of millionaires." It's a bid to answer the question as to why so many of us fail to reach our full potential, and how we can adopt strategies to achieve our goals.

Despite being written in 1938, it was only published in 2011. This was due to its controversial title and its critique of churches and schools. The book is structured as if Hill (Mr. Earthbound) is interviewing the devil, and it has an engaging Q and A structure. While the devil can be viewed from a Christian perspective, it's more pragmatic to consider the devil as the darkness within us – the doubts and anxieties that discourage us from realizing our full potential.

This summary is a brief guide to some of the factors that nag us and dissuade us from making the most of our lives. Why are so many people aimlessly going through the motions of their lives and not maximizing on opportunities? Hill argues that freedom and success are just around the corner, provided we use our imagination and get to know ourselves and the world around us. By role-playing and having conversations with ourselves, we can unlock a greater sense of purpose.
