Cold War Art Worlds Simone Wille, 2025-11-05 During the Cold War the Central European capital city Prague along with other previously less noticed locations in the polarised post war world emerged as a key site where an art world of particular importance for artists from South Asia developed By emphasising cultural mobility as a catalyst for exchange and network building this book challenges and complicates assumptions about Cold War binaries of East and West and the polarisation between so called totalitarian regimes and free cultures Positioning Prague as a nexus where South Asian modernisms intersected with multiple peoples histories and ideologies in the post World War II era it offers a narrative of decolonisation that rejected rigid systemic alignment in favour of participation across blocs by prioritising migratory aesthetics over nationalist parochialism Well researched and rich in archival materials this book proposes new ways of writing art histories and makes a significant contribution to both Cold War studies and critical global modernism studies Art and Indian Copyright Law Nandita Saikia, 2015-02-17 This work examines how the Indian Copyright Act 1957 as amended in 2012 interacts with art other than films and sound recordings and in particular with Indian art The first part of this text comprises a feminist and post colonial reading of the Indian copyright statute while later parts focus on interpreting the provisions of the statute in relation to art The Routledge Companion to Art and the Formation of Empire Emily C. Burns, Alice M. Rudy Price, 2025-05-30 This companion comprises essays that analyze interactions between art and global imperial relationships from 1800 to World War II The essays in this volume expose and add to historical layers of meaning in their discussions of art and empire Found across much of the globe sites of sedimentary rock allegorize the dynamics of art and empire and frame the section structure for this book Twenty two authors unpack imperial layers in a variety of global and historical contexts through case studies that center art and visual and material culture The authors show how art and aesthetics have operated as tools of empire Interpreting a comprehensive array of media as well as inter media dialogues they analyze and intervene in how we remember and examine entwinements between empire and aesthetic practices In this volume s attention to the role of art in imperial formation as well as the legacy of colonization the essays disentangle sediments of culture as they are moved and shaped by homogenizing forces of empire showing that the aesthetics of empire inflect not only individuals makers and economies but also practices of circulation and collecting The book will be of interest to graduate students researchers and professors and may be used in classes focused on art history imperialism and colonialism The Development of An Art History in the UAE Sophie Kazan Makhoulouf, 2024-10-15 This book draws together an oral and visual art history of a country that is extremely rich in culture and history but that is often overlooked or underestimated By observing the country s history and visual culture and the artistic practices of select artists from the UAE it considers the development of contemporary art from the UAE This will increase accessibility to art by Emiratis and underline its wider relevance There is a dearth of literature on contemporary art by Emiratis and this may be one of the reasons contemporary art from the UAE is under represented globally In order to help the reader better understand art from the UAE this book traces the country s historical make up its culture and contemporary art tradition through oral histories based on interviews with a wide variety of artists and people working in the art industries It also explores this development using global art discourses that are relevant to art produced in the UAE today This book also considers how cultural and artistic identities are formed and explores the political and socio economic interests in the country that have stimulated art practices and appreciation For so long an exclusively Western narrative has dominated Art and popular media portrays the Gulf s accomplishments in development and modernity with suspicion Thanks to the UAE s espousal of the Internet and online communities over the last decade this book is particularly timely Following the pandemic a wider understanding of global art discourses values and perceptions are increasingly welcomed Art from the UAE bridges the local and the global giving a voice and a visual presence to a country s contemporary art tradition that has been widely overlooked The UAE has a distinct visual arts tradition that relates to a broader and inclusive understanding of art centered on development and change

Tagore and Yeats ,2022-04-25 The Yeats Tagore friendship and the eventual curious fallout between the two remain a mystery the focus of this volume is a postcolonial reading of the two writers friendship the critical reception of Tagore in 1912 England and Tagore s erasure from Western literary discourse The essays in this volume take a decolonial turn to critically analyze the two writers in the discourse of power that is a part of their larger story The nuances that appear in the pages of this illuminating book explore the meaning of the politics of friendship and the sense of intercultural relationship marred by colonialism The volume re envisions what the postcolonial can mean be and do We can learn from the two major figures and their work and create a new vision of that problematic preposition post br Professor Mieke Bal ASCA Amsterdam School of Cultural Analysis This volume offers a magnificent illustration of how to retell the story of a cross cultural literary relationship from a decolonial perspective Ghosh and Redwine s edited collection exemplifies the need of the hour to reassess the value of literary traditions institutions and relationships while illuminating the politics of colonialism and racism that compromises them Deepika Bahri Professor of English Emory University Author of Postcolonial Biology

Contemporary Art and Capitalist Modernization Octavian Esanu,2020-10-08 This book addresses the art historical category of contemporary art from a transregional perspective but unlike other volumes of its kind it focuses in on non Western instantiations of the contemporary The book concerns itself with the historical conditions in which a radically new mode of artistic production distribution and consumption called contemporary art emerged in some countries of Eastern Europe the post Soviet republics of the USSR India Latin America and the Middle East following both local and broader sociopolitical processes of modernization and neoliberalization Its main argument is that one cannot fully engage with the idea of the global contemporary without also paying careful attention to the particular local and or national symptoms of the contemporary condition Part I is methodological and theoretical in scope while Part II is historical and documentary For the latter a number of case studies address the emergence of the category contemporary art in the context of Lebanon Egypt India Hungary Slovenia Croatia Bosnia and Herzegovina Armenia and Moldova The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history globalism cultural studies and postcolonial studies Nation, Region, Modernity Deeptha Achar, Pushpamala N., 2025-01-29 This volume explores the Indian artist K Venkatappa's life 1886-1965 his works and the political and cultural contexts that influenced and inspired his art It looks at the artist's style and examines the question of modernity in Indian art through the interstices of the regional and the national This richly illustrated book contextualises Venkatappa's work in the milieu of Calcutta princely Mysore and later Bangalore in the first half of the twentieth century at a time when boundaries horizons and identities were in great flux It complicates a unitary history of modern Indian art and indeed modernity in colonial India with its engagement with the question of region The volume discusses Venkatappa's engagements with Indian artistic nationalism the Bengal Renaissance asceticism as well as western modernist art and highlights the ambivalences and contradictions in his work Through an in-depth reading of these diverse contexts the essays in this book examine the artist's legacy and his contemporary relevance while showing how the trajectories of regional modernities can unsettle singular accounts of a nation's art This volume part of the Visual Media and Histories Series will be of interest to students and researchers of history of art history modern Indian art visual studies and cultural studies
