Waiting Ha Jin, 1999 Winner of the 1999 National Book Award for Fiction In Waiting PEN Hemingway Award winning author Ha Jin draws on his intimate knowledge of contemporary China to create a novel of unexpected richness and feeling This is the story of Lin Kong a man living in two worlds struggling with the conflicting claims of two utterly different women as he moves through the political minefields of a society designed to regulate his every move and stifle the promptings of his innermost heart For more than seventeen years this devoted and ambitious doctor has been in love with an educated clever modern woman Manna Wu But back in the traditional world of his home village lives the wife his family chose for him when he was young a humble and touchingly loyal woman whom he visits in order to ask again and again for a divorce In a culture in which the ancient ties of tradition and family still hold sway and where adultery discovered by the Party can ruin lives forever Lin s passionate love is stretched ever more taut by the passing years Every summer his compliant wife agrees to a divorce but then backs out This time Lin promises will be different Tracing these lives through their summer of decision and beyond Ha Jin vividly conjures the texture of daily life in a place where the demands of human longing must contend with the weight of centuries of custom Waiting charms and startles us with its depiction of a China that remains hidden to Western eyes even as it moves us with its piercing vision of the universal complications of love

Chinese Diasporic Writers and Artists Kwok-kan Tam, Lily Li, 2025-09-10 This book presents new and original essays that capture the enigmatic and intriguing personal and imagined worlds of Chinese writers and artists in diaspora in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Including chapters on artist writers such as Gao Xingjian Dai Sijie Ha Jin and Hong Ying Tyrus Wong and Shen Wei the book explores personal cross cultural experiences through their literary and other artistic works reflecting on their cultural identity their native home and their new home the past and the present By writing filming and painting about their diaspora diasporic experience they are writing about their selves and the traumatic experience many of them have gone through in forgetting the past forgiving the damage and foreshadowing a future by re-visioning their selves Their experience represents a generation's quest for an identity of being Chinese but culturally distanced from China As a study of cross-cultural human experience through the lens of literature film and other arts this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese diaspora studies it will also appeal to those with an interest in Chinese literature film and culture Transpacific Cartographies Melody Yunzi Li, 2023-12-15 Transpacific Cartographies examines how contemporary Chinese diasporic narratives address the existential loss of home for immigrant communities at a time of global precarity and amid rising Sino-US tensions Focusing on cultural productions of the Chinese diaspora from the 1990s to the present including novels by the Sinophone writers Yan Geling The Criminal Lu Yanshi Shi Yu New York Lover Chen Qian Listen to the Caged Bird Sing and Rong Rong Notes of a Couple as well as by the Anglophone writer Ha Jin A Free Life A Map of Betrayal selected TV shows Beijinger in New York The Way We Were and online literature Melody Yunzi Li argues that the characters in these stories create multilayered maps that transcend the territorial boundaries that make finding a home in a foreign land a seemingly impossible task In doing so these maps outline a transpacific landscape that reflects the psycho-geography of homemaking for diasporic communities Intersecting with and bridging Sinophone studies Chinese American studies and diaspora studies and drawing on theories of literary cartography Transpacific Cartographies demonstrates how these maps offer their readers different paths for finding a sense of home no matter where they are

Some Day Robert Eidelberg, 2020-06-29 SOME DAY The Literature of Waiting A Creative Writing Course With Time on Its Hands Now wait Now Wait You do it all the time Time and time again You're doing it right now waiting on our every word So here goes before there was this book SOME DAY on writing creatively about a world of waiting there was special topics Hunter College English course on The Literature of Waiting that featured a selection of novels plays and short stories by some rather famous world authors But wait even before that time-sensitive college course there were well the elevators particularly the ones in the North Building of Hunter College of the City University of New York Elevators that you always had to wait distressingly long for when they were apparently working and eternally long for when they were out of service There was even that infamous elevator repair sign Picture it a photoshopped female student with her right hand flat out in the stop and wait position her compressed lips silently conveying that any wait on your part for an elevator to come would be entirely futile And did we mention that the repair sign would inevitably remain up even after that elevator had been fixed Now that made a certain sense since it was only a matter of time before the sign was like a broken clock accurate again Author Robert Eidelberg's Books With a Built-In Teacher In addition to Some Day The Literature of Waiting all of the following Books With a Built-In Teacher by educator and author Robert Eidelberg are available through all online bookstores as well as from the author by contacting him at glamor62945 mypacks.net Who's There in Shakespeare's HAMLET That Is
