Narratives of English Language Learners in Private Tutoring Kevin Wai Ho Yung, 2025-12-04 Yung offers a groundbreaking exploration of the dynamic interplay between motivation private tutoring and second language learning Examining the under researched topic of shadow education in the context of applied linguistics this book provides a fresh and insightful outlook on the unique experiences of English as a second language L2 learners engaged in English private tutoring By examining L2 learners experiences from the perspective of the L2 motivational self readers will gain valuable insights into how personal goals identity and aspirations drive learning processes The book features an in depth analysis of L2 learners narratives shedding light on the diverse factors that shape students L2 motivation in learning English in cram schools Researchers educators policymakers schoolteachers and tutors alike will benefit from the understanding of how private tutoring influences the development of learners L2 motivational selves informing teaching strategies policies and language learning approaches in both mainstream and shadow education settings This book is a must read for researchers in applied linguistics and educators and practitioners working with L2 learners seeking to understand the underpinnings of motivation in English language learning With its unique focus on the private tutoring context this book serves as a vital resource for those striving to optimise language learning experiences and outcomes within and outside school

Controversies in Medium of Instruction Reform Shek Kam Tse, Wing Wah Ki, Mark Shiu Kee Shum, 2021-10-25 The book is an in depth and comprehensive analysis of the case of language in education reform and language policy controversies of Hong Kong over the initial two decades after 1997 It is a scholarly monograph of conscientious educators and researchers who have been active during the education reform collaborating with different parties on school development and classroom teaching experiments This book provides a multiple perspective investigation into the education and language matters Besides socio political perspectives this book also emphasizes the frontline educational and practical perspectives The book explores the benefits and effective methods of mother tongue and multi lingual teaching that have emerged in the period Based on the problematic experience of language purism and bifurcation in the reform the book argues for an inclusive multilingual education policy with mother tongue as the core This book provides potential solutions and good practices to tackle the complex issues brought about by medium of instruction policy reforms in post colonial times

Language Planning in the Asia Pacific Robert Kaplan, Richard Baldauf, 2013-12-16 This volume covers the language situation in Hong Kong Timor Leste and Sri Lanka explaining the linguistic diversity the historical and political contexts and the current language situation including language in education planning the role of the media the role of religion and the roles of non indigenous languages Two of the authors are indigenous to the situations described while the other has undertaken extensive field work and consulting there The three monographs contained in this volume draw together the literature on each of the polities to present an overview of the research available about each of them while providing new research based information The purpose of the volume is to provide an up to date overview of the language situation in each polity based on a series of key questions in the hope that this might facilitate the development of a richer theory to guide language policy and planning in other polities where similar issues may arise This book was published as special issues of Current Issues in Language Planning □□
