Easy Keyword Research Guide For Students:

Library Reference Services and Information Literacy: Models for Academic Institutions Cordell, Rosanne M.,2013-06-30

As classrooms and universities strive to adapt their instructional methods to an ever progressing technological age it is imperative that academic libraries also revisit the ways in which reference and instruction services are organized and implemented Library Reference Services and Information Literacy Models for Academic Institutions not only advocates for a more intentional integration of reference and instructional services but it also provides organizational background staff objectives and various successes and challenges that have already been experienced by real institutions This publication is an important reference source for librarians practitioners and university leaders who wish to maximize the current utilization of their resources Critical Thinking Within the Library Program John Spencer,Christopher Millson-Martula,2014-10-20

While academic librarians frequently discuss critical thinking and its relationship to information literacy the literature does not contain an abundance of sources on the topic Therefore this works provides a current and timely perspective on the possible roles of critical thinking within the library program The work contains a variety of approaches likely to benefit the practicing librarian It begins with a review of the literature followed by theoretical approaches involving constructivism and the Socratic method Readers will find pieces on the integration of critical thinking into the first year experience and course specific case studies as well as a selection on a campus wide critical thinking project In each of the pieces librarians are exploring new ways to meet their instructional goals including the goal of teaching critical thinking skills to students across the curriculum This book was originally published as a special issue of College Undergraduate Libraries Research Activities ,1996 The College Student's Research Companion Arlene Rodda Quaratiello,1997 This guide to using a college library covers finding information in all available formats and how to find the relevant material in periodicals Also included is an explanation of databases and how they can help with research and an overview of how to make the most of the Internet
