The Pocho Research Society Field Guide to L.A. Sandra de la Loza, 2011 Visual and performance artist Sandra de la Loza presents a wry commentary on the Chicano history of Los Angeles in this field guide to Downtown and East Los Angeles Using the format of the photographic essay she documents the exploits of the Pocho Research Society an organization dedicated to commemorating sites in Los Angeles that are of importance to the Chicano community but that have been erased by urban development or neglect Through the unauthorized acts of commemoration the Pocho Research Society calls our attention to their absence from official narratives The field guide also offers playful tours of the murals at Estrada Courts and the Fort No Moore Secret Museum founded by the Pocho Research Society to preserve the history of the Fort Moore Pioneer Memorial a history that includes accounts of the Lizard People who lived in catacombs far beneath the monument By drawing attention to these invisible monuments and lost histories de la Loza asks her readers to consider the broader question of what constitutes a community s history
