the part of the woman All levels Scenes Monologues Male Monologues 1 Female Female Scenes 1 Male Female Scenes 2 In addition to basic information about the play author and publisher the entry provides you with the story line a critique of the play and the number of audition worthy monologues and scenes it contains If the description of this particular play piques your interest your next step is to turn to Part Six Male Female Scenes for specifics about the selection This is what you ll see there The Middle of the Night by Paddy Chayefsky Samuel French Drama Act II Scene 2 pp 40 44 The Manufacturer 53 and The 23 After an unsatisfactory attempt at lovemaking The Manufacturer feels awful that he wasn t able to perform ually The is very understanding He then asks her to marry him The actor playing The Manufacturer must have a good feel for regional New York speech patterns This skill is less critical for the actress playing The Start The Manufacturer I m sorry Betty End The Manufacturer Oh my sweet I love you so much you don t know If you change your mind tomorrow I won t be angry with you I won t lie to you Betty I m afraid This entry tells you what type of scene this is dramatic where you ll find the selection act scene and page numbers the length of the scene the names and ages of the characters the context in which the characters are speaking and the first and last lines of the scene If the material seems appropriate all you have to do is get a copy of the play and get to work Because

The Palgrave Handbook of Queer and Trans Feminisms in Contemporary Performance Tiina Rosenberg, Sandra D'Urso, Anna Renée Winget, 2021-09-21 The purpose of this Handbook is to provide students with an overview of key developments in queer and trans feminist theories and their significance to the field of contemporary performance studies It presents new insights highlighting the ways in which rigid or punishing notions of gender sexuality and race continue to flourish in systems of knowledge faith and power which are relevant to a new generation of queer and trans feminist performers today The guiding question for the Handbook is How do queer and trans feminist theories enhance our understanding of developments in feminist performance today and will this discussion give rise to new ways of theorizing contemporary performance As such the volume will survey a new generation of performers and theorists as well as senior scholars who engage and redefine the limits of performance The chapters will demonstrate how intersectional queer and trans feminist theoretical tools support new analyses of performance with a global focus The primary audience will be students of theatre performance studies as well as queer gender studies The volume's contents suggest close links between the formation of queer feminist identities alongside recent key political developments with transnational resonances Furthermore the emergence of new queer and trans feminist epistemologies prompts a reorientation regarding performance and identities in a 21st century context
