Mornings In Jenin:

Mornings in Jenin Susan Abulhawa, 2010-07-01 A heart wrenching powerfully written novel that could do for Palestine what The Kite Runner did for Afghanistan Mornings in Jenin Susan Abulhawa, 2024-10-24 A heart wrenching powerfully written novel spanning three generations of a Palestinian family through love and loss war and oppression OVER A MILLION COPIES SOLD WORLDWIDE THE 15TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION A powerful and passionate insight into what many Palestinians have had to endure Michael Palin Abulhawa possesses the heart of a warrior Alice Walker

_____ Palestine 1948 A mother clutches her baby son as Israeli soldiers march through the village of Ein Hod In a split second he is snatched from her arms and the fate of the Abulheja family is changed forever Mornings in Jenin is a devastating novel of love and loss war and oppression heartbreak and hope spanning five countries and four generations of one of the most intractable conflicts of our lifetime _____ Readers love Mornings in Jenin The most heartbreaking novel I have ever so far come to read Goodreads review 5 stars Within the sadness of its pages glimmers hope for reconciliation and peace Goodreads reviewer 5 stars The perfect example of how fiction has the power to change and inform us Goodreads reviewer 5 stars Tragic powerful haunting enlightening absorbing and devastating Goodreads reviewer 5 stars It made me weep every few pages laugh out loud on others A truly great read Goodreads reviewer 5 stars Mornings in Jenin Susan Abulhawa, 2010 The Oxford History of the Novel in English Cyrus R. K. Patell, Deborah Lindsay Williams, 2024-03-05 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a twelve volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements and tendencies This book offers an account of US fiction during a period demarcated by two traumatic moments the eve of the entry of the United States into the Second World War and the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic The aftermath of the Second World War was arguably the high point of US nationalism but in the years that followed US writers would increasingly explore the possibility that US democracy was a failure both at home and abroad For so many of the writers whose work this volume explores the idea of nation became suspect as did the idea of national literature as the foundation for US writing Looking at post 1940s writing the literary historian might well chart a movement within literary cultures away from nationalism and toward what we would call cosmopolitanism a perspective that fosters conversations between the occupants of different cultural spaces and that regards difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved During this period the novel has had significant competition for the US public's attention from other forms of narrative and media film television comic books videogames and the internet and the various forms of social media that it spawned If however the novel becomes a residual form during this period it is by no means archaic The novel has been reinvigorated over the past eighty years by its encounters with both emergent forms such as film television comic books and digital media and the emergent voices typically associated with multiculturalism in the United States

Post-Orientalism and Contemporary American Novels Mousa Abu Haserah,2023-08-09 This book provides a scientific and academic contribution to the scholarly exploration of the complex relationship between the East and the West in American literature The study focuses on four novels Mornings in Jenin Falling Man The Reluctant Fundamentalist and Riyah Al Janna The Wind of Paradise to discuss how the literature reflects on Middle Eastern themes in relation to the situations and conditions of the New East It treats the Orient as a moving body and takes Edward Said's Orientalism into account also showing Post Orientalism or the New East as a literary phenomenon in the 21st century specializing in politics militarism and post colonial ideology The book explains and divides the Middle East into two parts the Arab Islamic Middle East and the non Arab Islamic Middle East It highlights the similarities and differences between these two parts as depicted in various novels presenting the East as a land of desolation and destruction due to the political regional and religious changes that have shaken it

Recontextualizing Resistance Emily Golson,2018-01-23 Resistance is a concept that rose to the forefront of several areas of study when Max Weber made careful distinctions between authority force violence domination and legitimation It gained strong attention when the well known Palestinian journalist activist fiction writer and critic Ghassan Kanafani 1936 1972 published a study entitled the Literature of Resistance in Occupied Palestine 1948 1966 a work that contributed to postcolonial theories of power race ethnicity and gender and second generation theories of orientalism feminism and disability Initially identified by philosophers historians and social critics as a focal point for situations in which oppressors brutally destroy the identity or subjectivity of the oppressed resistance has been transformed by fiction writers filmmakers lyricists and speechmakers into a process in which responses and counter responses to some type of injustice create difficult situations with complicated nuances These works now form the foundation for what has come to be recognized as resistance art This book gathers the insight knowledge and wisdom found in different manifestations of this art to further our understanding of the impact of resistance on contemporary life

Breaking Broken English Michelle Hartman,2019-03-26 Black Arab political and cultural solidarity has had a long and rich history in the United States That alliance is once again exerting a powerful influence on American society as Black American and Arab American activists and cultural workers are joining forces in formations like the Movement for Black Lives and Black for Palestine to address social justice issues In Breaking Broken English Hartman explores the historical and current manifestations of this relationship through language and literature with a specific focus on Arab American literary works that use the English language creatively to put into practice many of the theories and ideas advanced by Black American thinkers Breaking Broken English shows how language is the location where literary and poetic beauty meet the political in creative work Hartman draws out thematic connections between Arabs Arab Americans and Black Americans around politics and culture and also highlights the many artistic ways these links are built She shows how political and cultural ideas of solidarity are written in creative texts and emphasizes their potential to mobilize social justice activists in the United States and abroad in the ongoing struggle for the liberation of Palestine

Mornings in Jenin, 2013 Palestine 1941 In the small village of Ein Hod a father leads a procession of his family and workers through the olive groves As they move through the trees the green fruits drop onto the orchard floor the ancient cycle of the seasons providing another bountiful harvest 1948 The Abulheja family are forcibly removed from their ancestral home in Ein Hod and sent to live in a refugee camp in Jenin Through Amal the bright granddaughter of the patriarch we witness the stories of her brothers one a stolen boy who becomes an Israeli soldier the other who in sacrificing everything for the Palestinian cause will become his enemy Amal's own dramatic story threads its way through six decades of Palestinian Israeli tension eventually taking her into exile in Pennsylvania in America Amal's is a story of love and loss of childhood marriage and parenthood and finally the need to share her history with her daughter to preserve the greatest love she has

The Blue Between Sky and Water Susan Abulhawa, 2015-09-01 In the small Palestinian farming village of Beit Daras the women of the Baraka family inspire awe Nazmiyeh is brazen and fiercely protective of her clairvoyant little sister Mariam with her mismatched eyes and of their mother Um Mahmoud known for the fearsome djinni that sometimes possesses her When the family is forced by the newly formed State of Israel to leave their ancestral home only Nazmiyeh and her brother survive the long road to Gaza Amidst the violence and fragility of the refugee camp Nazmiyeh builds a family navigates crises and nurtures what remains of Beit Daras's community But her brother continues his exile's journey to America where upon his death his granddaughter Nur grows up alone in a different kind of exile the longing for family and roots eventually beckoning her to Gaza Internationally bestselling author Susan Abulhawa's powerful new novel explores the legacy of dispossession across continents and generations With devastatingly clear-eyed vision of political and personal trauma The Blue Between Sky and Water is the story of flawed yet profoundly courageous women of separation and heartache endurance and renewal
