

SHOBHA DE'S COSMOS OF FEMININE CHARACTERS

Dr. Gunjan Saxena

Asst. Professor (English) Bareilly College, Bareilly

Received: May 2019 Accepted: Jun. 2019 Published: Jul. 2019

Abstract: Shobha De, a god gifted writer with unique ability to analyse even the most sensitive and psychological aspects of human life dexterously, comes to the fore in the field of fiction. She delineates the hidden inner cosmos of Indian women through her female characters. She introduces in her works both submissive and rebellious characters with a view to be comprehended their trials and tribulations under the tinge of tradition and hue of modernity. The impact of this alloy provides the vitality and pours the life into the characters to such extent as they seem to walk around us. In her works like Socialite Evenings, Starry Nights, Strange Obsession, Sisters, Sultry Days, such feminine characters are portrayed at realistic foundation. They seem to shatter the good old image of women as an 'appendage' or an 'auxiliary'. It would not be exaggerated to assess that Shobha De entered into literary realm with a whiz bang.

Keywords: cosmos, feminine, novels, Shobha De.

Abstract: In present scenario, words like 'emancipation' and 'career' do not sound bizarre, sheepish and embarrassing while analysing feminine existence minutely. Women of today seem to believe –

Recognition is a must for one's existence
otherwise in dust
shall go life's essence

The thought provoking new equations related to super charged gender conundrum are changing by leaps and bounds. To a great extent, its credit goes to the social reformers who endeavour to provide equal rights and freedom to women. In this reference, the motto and conceptions of the Western Feminist Movement are also consequential. These social phenomena heralded quite new era and galvanized Indian feminist writing. Consequently, a rich treasure of literature emerged concerning the gender issues like child marriage, female infanticide, polygamy, equality of women and man-woman relationship. De facto, literature contains paraphernalia of umpteen notions and views of intellectuals regarding contemporary social, cultural and moral concerns of the society. A wide analytical review clarifies that such passion of writing emerges spontaneously from the creative mind of Shobha De. She needs not to fumble the words to pour out the refined ideas in the oeuvre of her fictions and anthology. She declares herself in her anthology 'Shobha: Never a Dull De...', "The changes we were living through were so dramatic and radical they had to be squarely addressed sans moralistic judgements. I believed my job as a columnist was to reflect these changes and comment on the new contours of man-woman relationships." [1]

De's prime focus was the Indian women's traditional as well as modern viewpoints including all their penchants, anxieties, jovialities, failures and victories. She depicts her women's world
