Teaching Learners of English in Mainstream Classrooms (K-8) Linda New Levine, Mary Lou McCloskey, 2009 Teaching Learners of English in Mainstream Classrooms is a unique resource designed to help K-8 classroom teachers integrate language learning into the content curriculum. This book helps teachers teach their grade level curriculum even though they may have English language learners in their classrooms. By using the strategies provided, teachers can promote content achievement for all of their students. Specifically written for content teachers, Linda New Levine and Mary Lou McCloskey's clear and friendly writing style emphasizes practical application of known second language learning principles. The authors offer classroom teachers practical strategies and tools to integrate content and language learning, accelerating the academic achievement of their students. Techniques for developing reading, writing, and speaking skills in the content areas are also emphasized.

Classroom Management: An Ecological Model for Secondary Educators Donald Perras, Satya Mohan, 2012-03-27 This book was designed to provide secondary educators with a practical guide to classroom management practices. Today's educators are confronted by a myriad of complex issues impacting students' behavioral conduct in school. Without adequate training and assistance, problems managing student behavior will result. The Ecological Model system presented in our book offers an integrated approach to succeed with secondary students in any community or school environment.

The Power of Problem Solving Juanita S. Sorenson, 1996 A timely presentation of using problem solving in all subject areas, not just math problems and puzzles. This book is a must-read for every K-8 classroom teacher. Procedures discussed apply to solving everyday problems of society, economics, politics, art, and literature. It includes background information, practical ideas, three hundred activities, and strategies for teaching problem solving in any subject. The activities are often presented within units of instruction for a specific age group, but all of them can easily be adapted for students in all grades and ages. The problem ideas cover a broad range of topics such as dinosaurs, historic homes, intriguing mysteries, and the art of argumentation.
