Johannes Rebmann Steven Paas,2018-05-17 This book is the revised and enlarged second edition of a biography of the missionary and linguist Johannes Rebmann 1820 1876 a Christian from Germany who worked in 19th century East Africa Rebmann was deeply influenced by the Movement of Pietism in his homeland Wu rtemberg He was trained to be a missionary in Basel Switzerland for the Anglican Church

Missionary Society CMS From its base in London the CMS sent him to the Muslim ruled and slavery ridden Mombasa area of present day Kenya There he stayed for 29 years before returning home to Gerlingen near Stuttgart blind and sick soon to die Rebmann was a faithful witness of Christ in word and deed He experienced a lot of suffering and opposition but was instrumental in establishing the Church in East and Central Africa His lexicographical work facilitated succeeding missionaries He compiled vocabularies of the Swahili and N y ika languages Together with Salimini a slave captured near Lake Nyasa now Lake Malawi by the Swahili Arabs he made a dictionary of the Kinyasi an important language in Central Africa which is now usually called Chichewa

Troubled Minds Arne S. Steinfeldt, 2009 Every society has its own definition of a normal and an abnormal human condition For persons living with mental disorders these concepts have a tremendous impact This study investigates how the abnormal mind is culturally defined in Malawi South Eastern Africa Based on anthropological techniques such as interviews participant observation and archive research it explores the different social dimensions of mental disorder e g its reflection in traditional dance rituals in behavioural rules during pregnancy or in the healing ministry of independent churches It demonstrates how local explanations of mental disorder be it witchcraft an angry ancestor or the will of God determine the social acceptance of an affected person s condition Recent processes of cultural change however strengthen the pluralism of Malawian religious landscape opening the local debate to an ever wider range of interpretations

Chichewa-English Dictionary Josep M. Massana, 2000

Visions for Racial Equality Harri Englund, 2022-02-17 Focusing on David Clement Scott the head of the Church of Scotland mission in Malawi who came to see Europeans as learners in Africa this innovative book narrates the rise and demise of a unique vision for racial equality in nineteenth century Africa By immersing himself in the vernacular language and institutions Scott developed a theology of reversals to pursue justice in race relations It set him on a collision course with the Church colonial government and the White commercial interests spearheaded by Cecil Rhodes Harri Englund shows how Scott s struggle for justice was as much epistemic as political and spiritual a vision for the future in which White and Black would thrive in their mutual recognition as co knowers From linguistic translation to conflicts over land and taxation from slave trade to personal intimacies Visions for Racial Equality weaves a rich tapestry of themes in the life and times of a little known visionary

Intractable problems of human rights Thoko Kaime, Bonolo Dinokopila, 2025-12-30 Despite tremendous strides in the legal and institutional protection of human rights in Africa which has seen the African Union champion the ever growing framework of treaties and institutions dedicated to human rights protection many African citizens still suffer the yoke of human rights abuses In some cases their situations seem worse than they were before the advent of widespread constitutional protection Despite the establishment of these extensive legal frameworks why do human rights violations still persist on a large scale The chapters in this book address this core question by focusing on three intractable problems of human rights which are defined by the seeming impossibility of resolving them

Meaning of Justice in African

Philosophy Grivas Muchineripi Kayange,2023-11-27 The book examines the meaning of justice in African political philosophy building on the use theoretical approach Currently most of the philosophical works in this context advocate for a communal interpretation of the meaning of justice such as the relational theory of justice and Ubuntu justice as fairness The author argues that this foundation of justice in the community undermines the self which is a major problem with these theories As an attempt to go beyond communitarianism in African thought the book recognizes other philosophical frameworks for elaborating the meaning of justice in ordinary people s experience such as vitalism theism ubuntuism and semantic framework The author opts for a reconstructed ubuntu based theory of the meaning of justice that reflects the traditional African experience and recuperates valuing self existence and valuing other existence as its foundations The book further identifies the centrality of rights in defining justice intraditional African communities

From Home and Exile Woods, Joanna,2014-12-04 This book is about home With Malawi as its focus it seeks to understand ideas about home as expressed through poetry written by Malawians in English Although African Literatures are studied those of Malawi have not received agreeable attention This book surveys poetry by five Malawian writers Felix Mnthali Frank Chipasula Jack Mapanje Lupenga Mphande and Steve Chimombo The discussion negotiates scribed experience of exile engendered by Dr Banda s regime and shows that the selected poets effectively converse with a sense of home reflecting on its transformations in their work Interrogating the strict definitions of home the argument highlights that far from home less exiles in fact clarify the sense of what home is The manoeuvre is one of thinking towards an unboundaried home This book will be of value not only to readers interested in the cultures of Africa but to all those with an interest in worldwide literary phenomena and ideas therein of home and exile
