A Profile of Kenyan Entrepreneurs Waithaka, Wanjiru, Majeni, Evans, 2014-12-04 A Profile of Kenyan Entrepreneurs profiles a dozen of Kenya's most successful entrepreneurs across a variety of industries manufacturing pharmaceuticals agriculture ICT retail media and entertainment to name a few It is a collection that proves that when there is money to be made you cannot beat a good entrepreneur no matter how deprived his or her background Be inspired by stories that illustrate the triumph of hope over means and the resilience of the human spirit in the face of seemingly insurmountable odds Find out how they got to where they are the pitfalls and challenges along the way and how they made and lost millions Through their eyes you will get a fascinating glimpse into Kenya's history and the events that shaped business in the colonial pre and post independence periods In this first book of its kind Kenyan entrepreneurs tell it all the good the bad and the ugly From the building of the Kenya Uganda railway the state of emergency in 1952 and the crackdown on Mau Mau fighters the coffee boom and policy of Africanisation in the 1970s to the political corruption in the 1980s the decline of the Kenyan economy in the 1990s and the modicum of hope in 2000s And best of all a section on tips for aspiring entrepreneurs where they tell you how to achieve their level of success

Business and Social Crisis in Africa Antoinette Handley, 2019-11-21 Much of the time when confronted with a crisis of national dimensions businesses do exactly what we expect them to do they look to their own survival Occasionally however firms in some contexts go beyond this Based on qualitative country based fieldwork in Eastern and Southern Africa Antoinette Handley examines how African businesses can be key responders to wider social and political crises often responding well in advance of the state She reveals the surprising ways in which business responses can be focused not on short term profits but instead on ways that assist society in resolving that crisis in the long term Taking African businesses in Kenya Uganda Botswana and South Africa as case studies this detailed exploration of the private sector response to crises including HIV AIDS and political violence crises introduces the concept of relative business autonomy exploring the conditions under which it can emerge and develop when and how it may decline and how it might contribute to a higher level of overall societal resilience

The History of Business in Africa Grietjie Verhoef, 2017-10-16 This book offers a comprehensive study of the history of African business By analyzing the specificities of African business culture as well as the dynamically changing African policy context the author sheds new light on the development of African enterprises markets and institutions The book covers a wide range of historical studies starting with the earliest exchange networks the new market opportunities resulting from European penetration the dualism of state owned companies and private enterprises during the twentieth century the role of foreign direct investments and multinational companies during the 1990s and the globalization of African business

The Handbook of Social Work and Social Development in Africa Mel Gray, 2016-10-26 All recent books on international social work mention Africa only briefly and few engage with the broader field of development studies This book focuses solely on the unique African context

engaging with issues relating to social work and development more broadly thus enabling a deeper examination and more complex and nuanced picture to emerge Unlike most academic works this book highlights multiple practitioner voices with authors or co authors that have recently been or are currently practising social workers As an edited book it draws from both academic research as well as lived practice experience supported by strong theoretical positioning and guidance in introductory chapters drawing on African literature wherever possible Looking at case studies from Lesotho Botswana Kenya Zimbabwe Ethiopia Namibia Uganda Nigeria Kenya South Africa Rwanda Zambia and Tanzania and covering established areas of practice such as child protection working with older people working with people with disabilities mental health and mainstream services targeting women as well as emerging areas of developmental social work practice such as humanitarian assistance in post conflict situations work with immigrants and refugees and the training of community based workers this book takes a future oriented perspective that aims to move beyond well worn critiques to envision constructive and sustainable futures for social work and social development in Africa from a critical perspective

Practical Handbook Business in Africa Thomas Schmidt, Kay Pfaffenberger, Stefan Liebing, 2023-11-16 Africa is a continent on the upswing developing great economic momentum If German companies want to participate in Africa s upswing they need to be familiar with some special features This book shows the way to successful business in Africa It is a practical yet scientifically based guide for all entrepreneurs and economically interested parties who want to be successful in Africa It combines the experience of many companies with the scientific perspective and findings of the Centre for Business and Technology in Africa at Flensburg University of Applied Sciences In the 2nd edition new developments on the African continent are taken up and current answers are given to the classical questions which each actor must answer for itself which wants to be economically successful in Africa WHY Africa is interesting for the business WHERE the largest chances of success exist HOW to proceed and WHICH approaches for the future organization of the economic relations between Germany and Africa are promising The book describes how to invest in Africa and bundles the current experiences of managers of large corporations and family businesses with a long history on the continent

Globalization Alternatives J. Mark Munoz, 2018-01-24 In a complex and growingly chaotic global environment individuals companies and countries are forced to adapt innovate and operate in new ways Creative and unconventional economic and business models are constantly being developed in order for countries and corporations to gain a competitive advantage Countless novel ideas have challenged traditional views on the merits of globalization Populist and protectionist sentiments have gained ground alongside calls for economic nationalism alter globalization deglobalization and even unglobalization Skepticism is on the rise and there is a pressing need for fresh solutions and viable strategies This book assembled a cast of international experts and thought leaders and gathered their views on alternative pathways toward global success

Higher Education and Policy for Creative Economies in Africa Roberta Comunian, Brian J. Hrac, Lauren England, 2020-11-04 The book reflects on the role of the creative economies in a range of African countries namely Ghana Kenya Nigeria South Africa and Uganda Chapters explore how creative economies emerge and can be supported in African countries The contributors focus on two key dimensions the role of higher education and the role of policy Firstly they consider the role of higher education and alternative forms of specialised education to reflect on how the creative aspirations of students and future creative workers of these countries are met and developed Secondly they explore the role of policy in supporting the agendas of the creative economy taking also into consideration the potential historical dimension of policy interventions and the impact of a lack of policy frameworks The book concludes by reflecting on how these two pillars of creative economy development which are usually taken for granted in studying creative economies in the global north need to be understood with their own specificity in the context of our selected case studies in Africa This book will be of interest to students scholars and professionals researching the creative economies in Africa across the humanities and social sciences All the royalties from the publication of this book will be donated to the not for profit organisation The Craft and Design Institute CDI <https://www.thecdi.org.za> in South Africa supporting capacity building for young creative practitioners from disadvantaged backgrounds
