

Conceptual Definitions of:

■ Fetha Negest

- The law of the kings. It is a book of law used by Ethiopian Christians as a law since 16th century of Zere yacob era. That was used as laws and regulations to govern all activities of Ethiopian society. A legal code used in Ethiopia at least as early as 1450 to define the rights and responsibilities of the monarch and subjects, as defined by the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo church.

■ Kibre Negest

- The Glory of the kings. A traditional document that has constitutional relevance. It defined who become the king that the king/queen has a blood relationship with King Solomon. Which presented the concept that the legitimacy of the emperor of Ethiopia was based on its asserted descent from king Solomon of ancient Israel.

Japanese relations from their beginnings in the interwar period through the Italo Ethiopian War of 1935 6 drawing on Japanese Russian Italian French and English sources With the Japanese posing as the leader of the world s colored peoples before World War II many Ethiopians turned to Japan for inspiration By offering them commercial opportunities by seeking their military support and by reaching out to popular Japanese opinion Ethiopians tried to soften the stark reality of a stronger Italy encroaching on their country Europeans feared Japan's growing economic and political influence in the colonial world Jealously guarding its claimed rights in Ethiopia against all comers among Italy's reasons for going to war was the perceived need to blunt Japan's commercial and military advances into Northeast Africa Meanwhile throughout 1934 and the summer of 1935 Moscow worked hard and in ways contrary to its claimed ideological imperatives to make Collective Security work Ethiopia was a small price to pay Italy for cooperation against Nazi Germany in Austria and Imperial Japan in China Yellow Japanese and black Ethiopian collaboration before the war illuminates the pernicious and flexible use of race in international diplomacy In odious terms Italians used race to justify their actions as defending western and white civilization The Japanese used race to explain their tilt toward Ethiopia The Soviets used race to justify their support for Italy until late 1935 Ethiopia used race to attract help and colored peoples worldwide rallied to Ethiopia's call J Calvitt Clarke III is

Professor Emeritus of History at Jacksonville University Florida Memory Politics and Building Multinational States in Africa Ashagrie G. Abdi, 2025-12-31 This book tackles the fundamental question of how a society with competing collective memories and visions can build a common nation while trying to reconcile the past and forge a common future Delving into the complex interplay between collective memory identity nation building and constitution making within the Ethiopian context it offers a detailed case of how law memory and power interact in post conflict multi ethnic societies Using the 1995 Ethiopian Constitution as a case study the book investigates how competing collective memories and identity conflicts have shaped Ethiopia's national identity governance and broader efforts toward nation building in a multinational state Drawing on in depth interviews document analysis and theoretical insights it explores how historical grievances identity politics and contested memories were embedded in constitutional debates over federalism language the flag and the right to self determination The analysis highlights the ways in which these collective memories influence political dynamics contribute to ongoing internal conflicts and shape national narratives Offering a deeper understanding of how memory politics affects governance and stability this work addresses the broader implications for scholars and policymakers interested in the intersections of memory identity and constitutional processes in diverse societies By centering Ethiopia and through a synthesis of theoretical frameworks and empirical research this book provides crucial insights into the challenges and possibilities of nation building across the Global South making it essential reading for researchers and advanced students interested in the complexities of governing multinational states African politics and law and those with interests in memory studies sociology social psychology more broadly Ethiopian Constitutional and Legal Development Heinrich Scholler, 2005

Post-Conflict Justice M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2021-10-01 Thirty scholars and experts discuss and provide wide ranging views on a variety of accountability measures the establishment of ad hoc criminal tribunals for the Former Yugoslavia and Rwanda truth commissions in South Africa and El Salvador and lustration laws for the former Czechoslovakia and Germany after its reunification Also discussed are amnesty for previous crimes and accountability post conflict justice involving issues pertaining to the restoration of law and order and the rebuilding of failed national justice systems In addition the book also contains an important set of guidelines designed to achieve accountability and eliminate impunity The guidelines with commentaries have been prepared by a distinguished group of experts many of whom have also contributed articles to this volume Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint Ethiopian Provincial and Municipal Government John M. Cohen, Peter H. Koehn, 1980 Ethnic Diversity and Federalism Yonatan Tesfaye Fessha, 2016-05-23 How federalism can be used to provide recognition and accommodate ethnic groups is an important topic not only in Africa but in multi ethnic communities around the world Examining how institutions of multi ethnic states have been designed to accommodate ethnic diversity while at the same time maintaining national unity this book locates institutional responses to the challenges of ethnic diversity within the context of a federal arrangement It examines how a federal arrangement has been used to reconcile the conflicting pressures of the demand for the recognition of distinctive identities on the one hand and the promotion of political and territorial integrity on the other Comparative case studies of South Africa and Ethiopia as the two federal systems provide a contrasting approach to issues of ethnic diversity Suggesting new ways in which federalism might work the author identifies key institutions lessons which will help to build an all inclusive society
