A Death In Oxford:

A death in Oxford Richard MacAndrew, 2007 The Oxford Book of Death D. J. Enright, 2008-10-01 The inescapable reality of death has given rise to much of literature's most profound and moving work D J Enright's wonderfully eclectic selection presents the words of poet and novelist scientist and philosopher mystic and sceptic And alongside these professional writers he allows the voices of ordinary people to be heard for this is a subject on which there are no real experts and wisdom lies in many unexpected places Death, Dying and Bereavement Donna Dickenson, Malcolm Johnson, Malcolm Lewis Johnson, Jeanne Katz, 2000-12-08 This second edition which has also been edited by Samson Katz utilizes around half of the original text of which a significant portions has been revised and updated The remainder comprises new material reflecting both the changes in attitudes generally towards death and dying and also designed to meet the needs of students undertaking the revised curriculum of the K260 This book will stimulate thinking and challenge the personal views of both academics and those in practice A valuable tool for both those new to the area of palliative and cancer care and those experienced professionals searching for a new angle on several key topics in relation to ethical issues occurring in this speciality A n excellent balance of theoretical contents and moving prose T his book is directed towards all professionals working in health and social care This book is a must for pre registration students wishing to gain greater understanding of the psychosocial issues faced by those with a terminal illness and their significant others Nurse Education Today The fully revised and updated edition of this bestselling collection combines academic research with professional and personal reflections Death Dying and Bereavement addresses both the practical and the more metaphysical aspects of death Topics such as new methods of pain relief guidelines for breaking bad news and current attitudes to euthanasia are considered while the mystery of death and its wider implications are also explored A highly distinctive interdisciplinary approach is adopted including perspectives from literature theology sociology and psychology There are wide ranging contributions from those who come into professional contact with death and bereavement doctors nurses social workers and councillors In addition there are more intimate personal accounts from carers and from bereaved people Death Dying and Bereavement is the Course Reader for The Open University course Death and Dying which is offered as part of The Open University Dipoma in Health and Social Welfare Praise for the First Edition The book does give a broad overview of many of the issues around death dying and bereavement It raises the reader's awareness and encourages deeper investigation at every level It is easy to read and therefore accessible to a wide audience Changes Provides a richly woven tapestry of personal professional and literary accounts of death dying and bereavement Health Psychology Update Offers a unique collection of fascinating information research stories poems and personal reflections It is unusual to experience such a diversity of writings in one book Nursing Times It brings together the knowledge and skills from a multi occupational group and thereby offers and opportunity to whoever reads it to enable better experiences for those who are dying and bereaved Journal of

Interprofessional Care For those trying to help the dying and bereaved this volume will inspire and move you as much as it will inform and guide your work Bereavement Care Provides a unique overview and in many areas penetrating insights into various aspects of death dying and bereavement One of its major strengths is that it brings together a wide and varied discourse on death across cultures and through time British Journal of Sociology

Communication, Love, and Death in Homer and Virgil Stephen Ridd, 2017-08-24 Homer's Iliad and Odyssey and Virgil's Aeneid are three of the most important and influential works of Western classical literature Although they differ in subject matter and authorship these epic poems share a common purpose to tell the deeds both of men and of the gods Written in an accessible style and ideally suited for classroom use Communication Love and Death in Homer and Virgil offers a unique comparative analysis of these classic works As author Stephen Ridd explains the common themes of communication love and death respond to deeply ingrained human needs and are therefore of perennial interest Presenting select passages from the original Greek and Latin texts translated here into modern English Ridd explores in detail how the characters within the poems communicate on these subjects with one another as well as with the reader Individual chapters focus on subjects such as the traditions of singing and storytelling relationships between sons and mothers the role of Helen of Troy and her ties to the men in her life and communication with the dead Throughout his analysis Ridd treats the three poems on an equal basis revealing similarities and differences in their handling of prevalent themes By introducing readers to a new way of reading these abiding classics Communication Love and Death in Homer and Virgil enhances our appreciation of the imaginative world of ancient Greek and Roman epic poetry

Narrative Fiction and Death Sabine Köllmann, 2023-09-29 Narrative Fiction and Death Dying Imagined offers a new perspective on the study of death in literature It focuses on narrative fiction that conveys the experience of dying from the internal perspective of a dying protagonist Writers from Victor Hugo in the early 1800s to Elif Shafak in the present day have imagined the unknowable final moments on the threshold to death This literary study examines the wide range of narrative strategies used to evoke the transition from life to death and to what effect revealing not only each writer's unique way of representing the dying experience the comparative reading also finds common concerns in these texts and uncovers surprising parallels and unexplored intertextual relations between works across time and space that will interest comparatists as well as specialists in the literatures discussed Students of individual texts examined here will benefit from detailed analyses of these works The fictional evocation of dying addresses our basic human fears offering catharsis consolation and a greater cognitive and emotional understanding of that unknowable experience Presented in an engaging and highly readable manner this study argues for literature's potential to challenge our assumptions about the end of life and change our approach to dying an aspect that will interest students and researchers of the health humanities palliative caregivers and all those interested in questions of the end of life

The Cambridge Companion to Life and Death Steven Luper, 2014-02-13 This volume discusses the philosophical issues connected with the nature and significance of life and death and the ethics of killing It will be of interest to all those taking courses on the philosophy of life and death applied ethics covering abortion euthanasia and suicide and ethics and metaphysics Life and Death in Private Law Kate Falconer,Kit Barker,Andrew Fell,2024-12-26 Private law regulates life this is self evident but how does it regulate death This edited collection explores this question Life and death are the beginning and end of the legal person the instigator and terminator of rights interests and obligations They are also the nominal separator of particular fields of law medical law from succession law for example As such they act as fault lines that can test the limit of private law principles and norms This book explores what life and death tell us about private law and what private law can tell us about the meaning and value of life and death Death Geoffrey Scarre,2014-12-05 What is death and why does it matter to us How should the knowledge of our finitude affect the living of our lives and what are the virtues suitable to mortal beings Does death destroy the meaningfulness of lives or would lives that never ended be eternally and absurdly tedious Should we reconcile ourselves to the fact of our forthcoming death or refuse to go gently into that good night Can death really be an evil if after death we no longer exist as subjects of goods or evils How should we respond to the deaths of others and do we have any duties towards the dead These and many other questions are addressed in Geoffrey Scarre s book which draws upon a wide variety of philosophical and literary sources to offer an up to date and highly readable study of some major ethical and metaphysical riddles concerning death and dying Immortality and the Philosophy of Death Michael Cholbi,2015-12-02 Death comes for us all eventually Philosophers have long been perplexed by how we ought to feel about death Many people fear death and believe that death is bad for the person who dies But is death bad for us and if so how is its badness best explained If we do not survive death if death is simply a state of nothingness how can death be bad for us If death is bad for us do we have good reason to live as long as possible Would an immortal life really be a good human life or would even an immortal life eventually become tedious and make us long for mortality This volume presents fourteen philosophical essays that examine our attitudes toward mortality and immortality The topics addressed have become more urgent as scientists attempt to extend the human lifespan perhaps even indefinitely This book invites the reader to critically appraise his or her own attitudes toward death and immortality by exploring the ethical metaphysical and psychological complexities associated with these issues The Life and Death of Mary Magdalene Thomas Robinson (Poet),Heinrich Oskar Sommer,1884 History of England from the Fall of Wolsey to the Death of Elizabeth James Anthony Froude,1875 The History of England from the Restoration to the Death of William III. (1660-1702) Sir Richard Lodge,1910 From the accession of Edward the First to the death of Henry the Seventh Henry Duff Traill,James Saumarez Mann,1902 Death on the Oxford Road E. C. R.
