

I finally got a phone for myself. Isn't life funny? When you have the access, you don't have the person. But I still called her number and left messages on her phone.

'Where are you, Shona? When can we meet up next? Why don't you pick up your phone? I miss you so much! But no one ever replied. I still took my mom's phone to check if she had messaged me. I checked call logs to see if she had ever called, but I found nothing. I went through her old messages on Vaibhavi's phone for hours. I read them again and again, word by word.
