A Handbook Of Statistical Analyses Using Spss Academia:

A Handbook of Statistical Analyses Using SPSS Sabine Landau, Brian S. Everitt, 2003-11-24 A Handbook of Statistical Analyses Using SPSS clearly describes how to conduct a range of univariate and multivariate statistical analyses using the latest version of the Statistical Package for the Social Sciences SPSS 11 Each chapter addresses a different type of analytical procedure applied to one or more data sets primarily from the social and behavioral sciences areas Each chapter also contains exercises relating to the data sets introduced providing readers with a means to develop both their SPSS and statistical skills Model answers to the exercises are also provided Readers can download all of the data sets from a companion Web site furnished by the authors Air Force Academy United States. General Accounting Office, 1993 This study evaluated the situation of women and minorities at the Air Force Academy addressing differences in performance indicators cadets perceptions and Academy actions to enhance the success of women and minorities Performance indicators for male and female cadets showed mixed results Minority cadets had comparable physical fitness scores lower academic admissions scores lower academic grade point averages and lower military performance averages than white cadets Minorities were also subjected to more academic and honor reviews than whites Minority cadets had higher attrition rates A survey of cadets revealed perceptions that women and minorities generally received treatment equal to that of men and whites However a higher percentage of men than women perceived that women were treated better and a slightly higher percentage of women than men perceived that they were treated worse The study concluded that although the Academy has taken a number of steps that should help women and minorities succeed at the Academy it does not have a consolidated data base to analyze changes in student performance indicators and has not established criteria for determining when performance differences are significant Appendixes contain the Academy s review systems methodology information analysis of data and list of contributors to the report Author JB Air Force Academy Mark E. Gebicke, 1994-10 Reviews treatment of women and minorities at the U S Air Force Academy Specifically the report addresses 1 differences in performance indicators between men and women and between whites and minorities 2 cadets perceptions of the fairness of the treatment that female and minority cadets receive and 3 actions the Academy has taken to enhance the success of women and minorities at the Academy 20 charts and tables Naval Academy United States.
