Ethics Inventing Right And Wrong John Leslie Mackie:

Ethics J.L. Mackie,1990-08-30 An insight into moral skepticism of the 20th century The author argues that our every day moral codes are an error theory based on the presumption of moral facts which he persuasively argues don't exist His refutation of such facts is based on their metaphysical queerness and the observation of cultural relativity The

Realizations of the Self Andrea Altobrando,Takuya Niikawa,Richard Stone,2018-09-11 Recent discussions of self realization have devolved into unscientific theories of self help However this vague and often misused concept is connected to many important individual and social problems As long as its meaning remains unclear it can be abused for social political and commercial malpractices To combat this issue this book shares perspectives from scholars of various philosophical traditions Each chapter takes new steps in asking what the meaning of self realization is both in terms of what it means to understand who or what one is and also in terms of how one can or should fulfill oneself The conceptual elucidations achieved from both theoretical and practical perspectives allow for a more mature awareness of how to deal with discourses on self realization and in any case can help to demystify the subject The Oxford Handbook of Criminal Law Markus D

Dubber,Tatjana Hörnle,2014-11-27 The Oxford Handbook of Criminal Law reflects the continued transformation of criminal law into a global discipline providing scholars with a comprehensive international resource a common point of entry into cutting edge contemporary research and a snapshot of the state and scope of the field To this end the Handbook takes a broad approach to its subject matter disciplinarily geographically and systematically Its contributors include current and future research leaders representing a variety of legal systems methodologies areas of expertise and research agendas The Handbook is divided into four parts Approaches Methods I Systems Methods II Aspects Issues III and Contexts Comparisons IV Part I includes essays exploring various methodological approaches to criminal law such as criminology feminist studies and history Part II provides an overview of systems or models of criminal law laying the foundation for further inquiry into specific conceptions of criminal law as well as for comparative analysis such as Islamic Marxist and military law Part III covers the three aspects of the penal process the definition of norms and principles of liability substantive criminal law along with a less detailed treatment of the imposition of norms criminal procedure and the infliction of sanctions prison law Contributors consider the basic topics traditionally addressed in scholarship on the general and special parts of the substantive criminal law such as jurisdiction mens rea justifications and excuses Part IV places criminal law in context both domestically and transnationally by exploring the contrasts between criminal law and other species of law and state power and by investigating criminal law's place in the projects of comparative law transnational and international law
