Everybody Loves A Good Drought:

Everybody Loves a Good Drought Palagummi Sainath,1996 The Human Face Of Poverty The Poor In India Are Too Often Reduced To Statistics In The Dry Language Of Development Reports And Economic Projections The True Misery Of The 312 Million Who Live Below The Poverty Line Or The 26 Million Displaced By Various Projects Or The 13 Million Who Suffer From Tuberculosis Gets Overlooked In This Thoroughly Researched Study Of The Poorest Of The Poor We Get To See How They Manage What Sustains Them And The Efforts Often Ludicrous To Do Something For Them The People Who Figure In This Book Typify The Lives And Aspirations Of A Large Section Of Indian Society And Their Stories Present Us With The True Face Of Development

Rural India and Peasantry in Hindi Stories Vanashree,2023 Drawing on a rich storehouse of short stories in Hindi after Premchand the book evokes the entire spectrum of crises that the rural world has experienced since the early decades of independent India through the period of liberalization till the recent decades The transcribed excerpts poignantly carry the spirit of rural India

Rights of the Child in the Context of Tourism - A Compilation , Divided Environments Jan Selby,Gabrielle Daoust,Clemens Hoffmann,2022-09-22 What are the implications of climate change for twenty first century conflict and security Rising temperatures it is often said will bring increased drought more famine heightened social vulnerability and large scale political and violent conflict indeed many claim that this future is already with us Divided Environments however shows that this is mistaken Focusing especially on the links between climate change water and security and drawing on detailed evidence from Israel Palestine Syria Sudan and elsewhere it shows both that mainstream environmental security narratives are misleading and that the actual security implications of climate change are very different from how they are often imagined Addressing themes as wide ranging as the politics of droughts the contradictions of capitalist development and the role of racism in environmental change while simultaneously articulating an original international political ecology approach to the study of socio environmental conflicts Divided Environments offers a new and important interpretation of our planetary future

Information & Communication Technology and Local Self Governance - A New Age Solution for Digital India Dr. Shashi Punam,Sanjeev Kumar,2022-11-15 The digital world in which we live today is the result of several developments in automation and science as well as modernizations and the most recent technologies At the moment every country desires to be completely digitised in order for the country to be legitimated in a more effective manner The phrase Digital India refers to the concern about the use of different Information and Communication Technologies ICTs such as mobile phones personal computers tablets TVs and other similar devices to promote the country s development The Digital India Campaign is a visionary initiative by the Indian government to transform our country into a smart economically cautious and digitally legitimised nation through the use of technology To reconstruct India the Indian government aspires to provide residents with quality and acceptable administrative services as well as to promote coordination and synchronisation of obligations among citizens The Digital India Campaign intends to link

the people of India digitally and to convey the different government services and programmes to them via the use of information and communications technology ICT The notion of local self governance is not a new one since it has its origins in antiquity dating back to the period of the Mauryan emperors and even before them The path of local self governance from the time of the dinosaurs to the present day is depicted in this study Furthermore in the current environment information and communication technology ICT has emerged as a successful tool for the dissemination of various e governance services and the Government of India has formulated the National e Governance Plan NeGP with an adequate service delivery mechanism in this regard After ICT was introduced numerous apps were developed by both the federal and state governments that contributed to strengthening of public private partnerships PRIs for rural transformation The advancement of information and communication technologies ICTs has created a plethora of possibilities in rural India It is feasible for information and communication technologies to make cognition sharing more convenient and information may be easily transmitted via the use of information and communication technologies This information might be easily accessed and used by administrators responsible for developing rural development strategies in India Interactions between the Ministry of Panchayat Raj and Rural Development the Government of India and the Panchayat Raj Institutions are coordinated In order to ensure rural development and strengthen rural local government the primary goal of the e panchayat is to provide a diverse range of services to its stakeholders A series of research phases were initiated after the notion of the e Panchayat The stages of information gathering and planning information and service requirements assessment process re engineering and DPR detailed project report preparation are all included Finally in 2009 with the assistance of the National Information Council the Indian government launched e Panchayat NIC Along with numerous research papers this book sheds some insight on the importance of information and communications technology ICT in self governance toward the digital India On the occasion of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav a workshop was funded by the Indian Council of Social Science Research from July 7th to 16th July 2022 The Chief Guest of The valedictory session was Hon ble Vice Chancellor Prof Sat Parkash Bansal and Guest of Honour Prof Kaushal Kumar Sharama from JNU Vice Chancellor Prof Sat Parkash Bansal motivate to all participants from whole the county to write a research paper on workshop whatever he or she learned from this workshop and send all research paper to Director of Workshop We received nine research articles from participants and 14 research articles from another related themes like Digital India Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Swachh Bharat Abhiyan e Governance State and central schemes and we published an edited book within 21 research article I would like to thanks the Honorable Vice Chancellor Central University of Himachal Pradesh Professor Sat Prakash Bansal who inspired us to publish the book I would also like to thanks ICSSR New Delhi who gave us the opportunity to publish the edited book in this way
