 Similarly purchasing or transporting goods and services from a foreign market into one's own country is an import This is the easiest way for a company to get into international business because it doesn't require much money to set up a production facility in another country instead it just needs distribution channels to successfully import or export goods A business can export or import in two ways Direct imports and exports In Direct Sending out Bringing in a firm straightforwardly manages the client provider of the far off country and plays out every one of the customs including shipment and supporting of labor and products Import export via indirect channels A company uses middlemen to interact with a customer or supplier in indirect exporting and import They don't deal with suppliers or customers directly The majority of the formalities and work are completed with the assistance of middlemen such as export houses purchasing businesses or overseas customer offices
